FROM THE DEAN'S OFFICE

Welcome again to all faculty, staff and new students. A special welcome back to returning students whom I have not had a chance to greet.

As you can see our new dorm building is completed. On the first floor of this building, McIntyre Hall, is a large room that can be used by commuters as a lounge. The Wigwam will also still be available.

We hope that the chapel will soon be completed.

I look forward to another exciting and challenging year, one of working and moving together. I hope to assist each of you in whatever way I can. If you have any questions, concerns, or suggestions, do come to see me in Bldg. #10.

Sister Kathleen Kelly

FROM THE REGISTRAR'S OFFICE

Adding/Dropping classes: If you want or need to change any of the classes for which you are registered, you are required to file an Add/Drop form, available from the Registrar's Office. You may add or drop classes without a fee from September 17 through September 28. You must obtain the signatures of the instructors of the classes you are adding and/or dropping, as well as your advisor's signature on the add/drop form, and file the form in the Registrar's Office. You will not be able to receive credit in any class for which you are not properly registered; failure to withdraw from a class you cease to attend may result in a grade of "F."

FROM THE ADVISEMENT CENTER:

REMINDER:

Friday, September 28 is the last day
— to add a class without a petition;
— to drop a course without a fee;
— to register late.

FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT SERVICES:

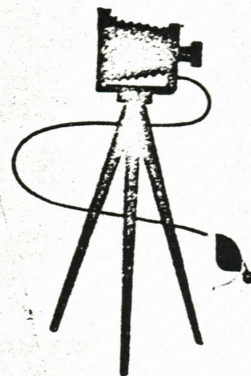

Welcome! -- to all the newcomers at Doheny - and Welcome Back! -- to all the returnees! It doesn't seem possible that the time has come to start again, but in some ways, all of us are glad. Let's hope that this year will be a red-letter one for all of us at Doheny. Be sure to drop by our office whenever you can and get acquainted or re-acquainted as the case may be!

PARKING DECALS:

Decals will be available in the Student Services Office in Bldg. 7, beginning Monday Sept. 17. Be sure to get yours and put it on your car right away. The decal is good for both Mount Campuses.

I.D. PICTURES:

You will be happy to know that Doheny is now the proud possessor of its very own I.D. machine -- no more sharing. Pictures will be taken in Bldg. 7, beginning Monday, Sept. 17. Resident students will be able to get theirs in the evening in Ahmanson Commons -- food cards will also be available. Hopefully all students will have their cards by the end of the first week of school.

DOHENY HANDBOOKS:

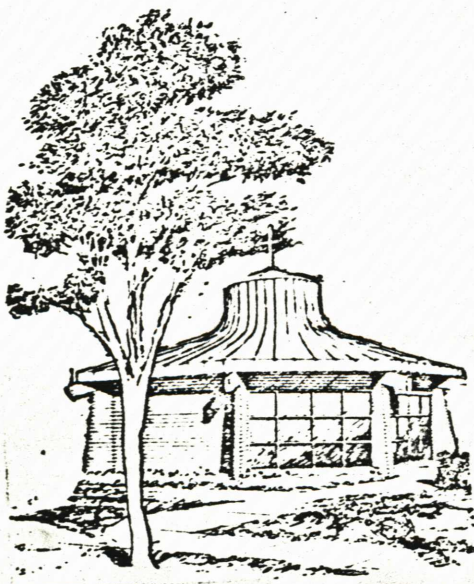

If you do not have your 1984-85 Handbook, please come by Building 7 sometime during this week and pick one up. Items of interest and importance are contained in the folders, so it is in your best interest to have one-- and to read it!

FROM THE CAMPUS MINISTRY OFFICE

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK: Set your hearts on the greater gifts... There are in the end three that last: Faith, Hope and Love; the greatest of these is LOVE.

(taken from the first reading of Wednesday's liturgy: 1 Cor. 12 - 13)

May our community at Doheny be a very good example of joy-filled people whose aim is to become more aware of what life as a Christian motivates us to be: men and women committed to Gospel values... love of God and neighbor.

CAMPUS MINISTRY OFFICE: The entrance to the Campus Ministry Office is across from Ahmanson Commons(dining room) on the south side of Bldg. 7. You are always welcome to drop by for inquiries you may have regarding our services. Be sure you pick up a brochure to know how we hope to serve you this year. Working together will enrich our lives, so please give us input. Fill out the information requested, please.

We welcome Father Jack Tynan, MM, who will be on campus with us this year. He will be available for counseling (749-7521) and is planning to offer daily Mass for us. Our special noon liturgies will be on Wednesdays for those who would like to join them. Times for liturgies will be posted for the other days. Mass will be celebrated for the time being in the Campus Ministry Office until the chapel is finished.

A Campus Ministry team is being formed. Please see Sister Consuelo if you wish to be part of the team or have ideas, input, etc.

ATTENTION: ACTIVE CAMPUS MINISTRY/NEWMAN CLUB MEMBERS:

100th ANNIVERSARY OF THE NEWMAN APOSTOLATE: Cardinal Manning will celebrate a special Mass of Thanksgiving in honor of 100 years of Campus Ministry in the United States. All present and former members and supporters of Newman Clubs are cordially invited to share with their friends on the 23rd of September, at 2:30 in the Cathedral of St. Vibiana, 2nd and Main Streets. Reception to follow in the Cathedral Courtyard. For more information please drop into the Campus Ministry Office in Bldg. 7 or call Ext. 2128. Hope to see some of you there. October	Wednesday 3	HORIZONS, 9:30 A.M. - 1:00 P.M., Chalon Campus.

HORIZONS - An All College Event

Dr. Mary Elizabeth Tidball, a noted educator in Physiology from George Washington University, will be the guest speaker for HORIZONS, on October 3, 1984.

Morning Schedule at Chalon Campus:

9:30 Refreshments in the Circle

10:15 Address by Dr. Tidball in the Little Theater

12:00 Picnic Lunch (Resident Students may pick up lunch in Brady Dining Room; Commuters may purchase or bring sack lunch.)

Dr. Tidball is the author of a "Perspective on Academic Women and Affirmative Action". Her topic for HORIZONS is "The Successful Professional Woman in the 90's". Dr. Tidball has done substantial research on women in leadership roles, in their achievements and successes. On Horizon's Day, she will draw from her experience as a successful professional woman herself and from her studies on women. One of the interesting components she has found in her research is that many of the successful professional women who are leaders in their fields attended a women's college like Mount St. Mary's.

Father Delaney has announced that morning classes will be canceled on both campuses so that faculty and students can attend this all-college Convocation.

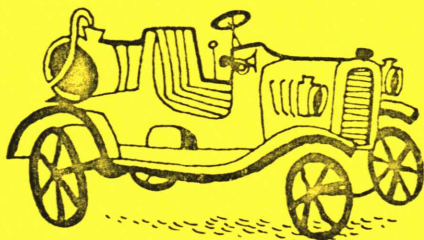

Transportation and parking arrangements are now being made and will be reported in the next Doheny Happenings.

FROM THE DEAN'S OFFICE:

Our prayers and sympathy are extended to Kelly Sullivan, a second year student, whose mother died this past week. Please remember all the family in your prayers.

FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT SERVICES:

AND...

A special THANK YOU for the patience of many of you who have spent time waiting for me through these first days of school. Due to a couple of different jobs, I have had to be out of the office more than I have been in it. I appreciate those of you with patience --though I understand those of you without it-- and I will try by Oct 1 to be more on schedule and available. Gracias!

HOW DO WE SERVE.....

HOW DO WE BECOME AWARE....

OF OUR FELLOW HUMAN KIND....

Working at Bethlehem Center helped me to understand many things about needy people...I became aware of their mentality. For the majority of these people they know no other way of life! They are not able to help themselves! This helplessness is a habit of the mind, and this is why we should help as much as we can..... Carolyn

The standards set by Susana and Elizabeth will be a standard by which other students from Mt. St. Mary's will be measured. I appreciate your faith in the clinic...! I'd love to have them anytime it fits the academic program. They both contributed so much...freeing personnel...working with the doctors....weighing and measuring....

FROM THE ADVISEMENT CENTER

PRE-HEALTH SCIENCE STUDENTS

If you wish to be considered for acceptance into the Department of Nursing for Fall, 1985, you need to take the BASIC MATH SKILLS TEST and achieve a score of 85 or better.

The required Nursing Math test of basic skills will be given:

FRIDAY OCTOBER 26 2:30-4:30 Chalon, Rm. H303A

MONDAY OCTOBER 29 10:10-12:10 Doheny, Rm. TBA

Those who wish to take the test at EITHER campus MUST sign up for it with Rita Veatch or Sue O'Donnell in Bldg. #2 by FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19. You should bring a Scantron sheet (available in bookstore), a photo I.D. and a pencil. Students will not be admitted to the test unless they have signed up to take the test.

FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT SERVICES

BLOOD DRIVE! TODAY!

This is it! Monday, October 15, is our Doheny Blood Mobile day on campus. The Red Cross will be in Donohue Conference Room from 9:30 A.M. to 2:30 P.M. If you made an appointment, please try to be on time. If you didn't have a chance, but still want to give, drop in-- we need every single person we can get! Our quota is 45 pints and as of the Happenings deadline, we only have 32 signed up! Where are you? Some day you might be the one in need--give today for that tomorrow!

PARKING CITATIONS:

Beginning today, citations for parking violations will be given on the Doheny Campus. Cars without decals, those parking over the yellow lines or in illegal spaces, will be fined and even subject to towing. Save yourself this grief--be prepared!

INSURANCE WAIVERS

The Business Office has sent word that several students did not take care of their insurance obligation for the Mount. You have to register your insurance (type and policy number) or sign up for the school insurance. Be sure to hand your form in right away--the rule of the insitution is that YOU MUST BE COVERED BY INSURANCE!

RESIDENT FOOD SERVICE I.D.CARDS

Some Doheny resident students have not yet taken care of getting a Food Service I.D. Without one, you will be expected to PAY for your meals, so it might be a good idea to take care of this item NOW! Come to Bldg. 7 at designated times for the I.D.

HEALTH FORMS:

Is yours in yet? We really need to have them in the hands of U.S.C. I know that you don't plan to get sick and be in need of that Health Service, but it does happen! So, be prepared! Hand the forms into Bldg.7 NOW!

SAFETY FIRST!

In these days when so much crime and violence seem to be a part of our world, it might be a good idea to consider your own role in personal safety, as well as campus safety.

When on campus at night, do not walk alone. Keep to the well-lit areas, when going to and from class, your car, or the dorms.

If at any time you notice a stranger or someone who does not seem to "belong" or "fit" on campus, notify the Switchboard in #10 (Operator on the campus phones), the Resident Desk in #15 (2251), or the guard (2284, 2285), or Mr. Blundell (2283). It is better to be safe than sorry!

The best rule of thumb is to be alert, careful and prepared.

FROM THE CAMPUS MINISTRY OFFICE

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK: (from St. Teresa of Avila)

- Let nothing disturb thee
Let nothing affright thee
God is not silent
All things are passing!
God alone is unchangeless!
- Quien a Dios tiene-
 - Nada le falta-
 - Solo Dios basta!-

(Being that Teresa was a Spanish mystic, a marvelous "wonder-woman" of her times, a prolific writer, doctor of the Church, etc., etc., she might like you to figure out the last three lines...you can surely guess or ask one of your hispanic friends!)

RETREAT COMING UP!

Don't forget, if you are still interested, the deadline can be stretched... to a point!

Weekend: November 2 - 4 (Nursing students: you might use some "R & R" as well as faith-sharing to get you through your mid-terms that next week...think about it, if you'd like to come!)

Place: Big Bear

Cost: $35.00 (reservation deposit: $10.00 due Oct.15)

THANK YOU!

To all who have responded to our surveys, questionnaires and attended our pool-supper party...we appreciate your interest; you have shared your input, and with these ideas and plans, activities will be forthcoming.

MUSIC MINISTRY SINGERS: WE NEED YOU!

Please join us on Wed. at 11:30 A.M. in Bldg. 7 or Sat. at 3:30 P.M. in Donohue Lounge (McIntyre Hall), for rehearsals. You can come both times. Those who sing, pray twice! Don't forget! Contact Michelle Ennis (Bldg. #1) or Teresa Burghardt (Bldg. #2) or Campus Ministry Office (Bldg. #7).

PHONE-A-THON:

Here is your chance to have an interesting experience and at the same time do something positive for RESPECT LIFE. The organization Alternatives to Abortion is conducting a Phone-a-Thon next week, beginning Wed. Oct. 16 and continuing through the following dates: Oct. 17, Oct. 22, 23, 24, 25 from 6:30 to 9:15 P.M.. (downtown Los Angeles location). If you would like to help out on an evening for an hour or more...please contact either Sr. Consuelo in the Campus Ministry Office or call Sr. Philip at 734-5882. They really need our help! Thank you!

ALPHA MU GAMMA, Foreign Language Honor Society, is sponsoring an afternoon at the Bi-Lingual Foundataion of the Arts Theater, 421 North Avenue 19, on Sunday, November 11, at 3:00 P.M. Carmen Zapata will perform in Garcia Lorca's Bodas de Sangre. The price of the ticket is $5.00. For reservations and tickets, contact Sister Aline Marie, Room 206A, as soon as possible before October 21st. Bring a friend.

FROM LEADERSHIP

"Tokenism in Corporations" will be the topic this Tuesday when Catherine Wagar speaks to the Leadership seminar in Room 108, Building 4, at 12 noon. If you are thinking of a career in business or administration in any field, you are welcome to attend this class.

FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT SERVICES

A BIG THANK YOU!

Special thanks are extended to all members of the Doheny Community who participated in the Blood Mobile last week. All the donors, workers, and recruiters are really appreciated. Thanks to the help of the donors, we were able to supply the Red Cross with 35 pints of blood. They were very grateful--and, as always, happy to be at Doheny for the day! Our next drive will be in the Spring. Watch for the date and plan to be a part of it!

DELTAS! and NON-DELTAS ALIKE

We need YOU! In fact, we need about thirty of YOU!

As you read earlier in the Happenings, Sunday, Oct. 28, will be a very special day at Doheny--the Dedication of McIntyre Hall and Our Lady of Mercy Chapel. Since it is our day, we are the hostesses and we have been asked to do a variety of jobs. IF you would like to share in the day, and are willing to do some hostessing, please come by the Student Services Office in Bldg. 7 to sign up. The hours are approximately 2 P.M.-3:30 P.M. and 4:30 P.M.-6:30 P.M. If you can do one or both, great! It should be a lot of fun and a very important day for all of us at Doheny! Share in it!

PARKING CITATIONS!

Tickets are now being given for those of you who are not complying with the parking regulations at the Doheny Campus. Fines of $5.00 are payable in Bldg. 7. Please bring the citation with you and pay right away -- to clear the record and your conscience!

FROM THE CAMPUS MINISTRY OFFICE

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Lord, I've joined the thronging crowds of women who live two lives in one, pressed by the necessity to work and learn. Give me strength to bear both burdens peacefully and well. Father, give me pride in what I do. Put my gifts and skills to work to serve others, so I may give my best to both my lives.

"Thou dost keep her in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee, because she trusts in Thee."

Isaiah 26:3

RETREAT REMINDER

The mountains are calling you to get away for a peaceful and deeply rewarding weekend. Drop into Campus Ministry Office today to sign up for the retreat if you are still interested. November 2-4 in Big Bear (Snow, who knows?)

SACRAMENTAL INQUIRY

Last call...If anyone is interested in preparing for the sacraments, leave word in the Campus Ministry Office who you are and your class schedule.

PRAYER/STUDY GROUP

Every Wednesday evening at 7:00 P.M. in McIntyre Hall, Donohue Lounge, you are welcome to come and spend a few moments in faith sharing, prayer and discussion. Won't you come?

SOCIAL ACTION

Students interested in the Social Action Class during Interterm or Spring semester or who just want to offer some time in volunteer service and have not picked up a flyer describing the program and volunteer facilities... drop by the Campus Ministry Office and pick up the information flyer (e.g., David Garza would like to form a Saturday A.M. volunteer group for Venice: St. Joseph's Center, food and clothing distribution center. Why not form a group and plan on going twice a month for a couple of hours? You'll learn a lot and feel much better about yourself!)

PHONE-A-THON

Do you like to talk on the phone? Go to Union Federal Savings Building on Glendale and Silverlake Blvds. (Mon. through Thurs. from 6:30-9:00 P.M. (or when you can; you will be trained to offer information on Alternatives to Abortion. Please call Sister Philip at 734-5882 or see Sister Consuelo. Again, get a group together and give an hour or two (instead of T.V.) to this good cause. There are only eight phones so make sure you call first. (Car pool will be needed.)

Interterm class:

MEXICO DURING INTERTERM?

It can be a possibility. If you are interested, be sure you pick up a flyer and find out more details of this trip. Other college students are welcome to join us also. If you know of anyone who might be interested, give them a flyer and invite them to the Orientation Meeting on October 29, at 7:45 P.M. in Bldg. 7.

ABORTION DEBATE

As part of the Moral Values class, two guest speakers will be debating the issue of ABORTION. All members of the student body are welcome to come and participate.

One speaker will be Susan Carpenter McMillian, who is the national media spokesperson for the pro-life group, "Right to Life". The other speaker will be Edward Tabash, an attorney who will represent the pro-choice position of the "National Abortion Rights League" (NARAL). Both are nationally well-known figures, having debated each other on this issue on several television shows.

DATE: November 13, 1984 (Tuesday)

TIME: 6:30 - 8:00 P.M.

PLACE: Doheny Lecture Hall

Stop! Look! FREEZE!!! UNITED WAY needs your help!

UNITED WAY helps many different organizations; child care, research, mental health, youth service, family counseling, child abuse/domestic violence, health and therapy, and emergency aid centers.

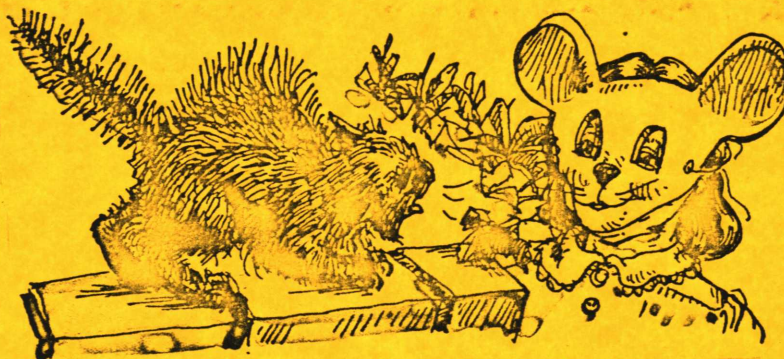

Support our efforts by purchasing a raffle ticket. We are raffling a stuffed animal; a T shirt from the Mount; five little, fluffy, adorable, live kittens. The tickets are 25¢ per chance. If you would like to donate your small change or $2.00, that would be great. Thank you. Contact Candace Jimmons or April Guray (Bldg. 2, ext. 2140 or 745-9463).

FROM THE ADMISSIONS OFFICE

Copies of the new admissions publications for the Associate in Arts and the Baccalaureate programs are available in the Admissions Office in Bldg. 10. Please stop by and pick up a copy.

TRICK OR TREAT!

On Wednesday, October 31st starting at 10:00 A.M., the Ghouls, Goblins and Witches of the Child Development Center will come around to all of the offices on campus in search of Halloween treats. Four groups of about 15 children each will descend upon you in frightening costumes. If you can provide one small goodie for each child, terrific! If you can't, please let Vivian Harper know(746-0789) and she will supply you with goodies to distribute to the children. By doing some friendly trick-or-treating on campus, we hope our children can experience the good ol' days of Halloween without the element of danger present on the streets. This is a big day for the children and we're glad you'll be a part of it.

FROM THE EDITOR

All materials for the Doheny Happenings should be submitted to Sister Joseph Adele Edwards and left in the box on top of the mailboxes in Building 10. Copy should be TYPED, DATED and SIGNED by the person responsible for submitting it.

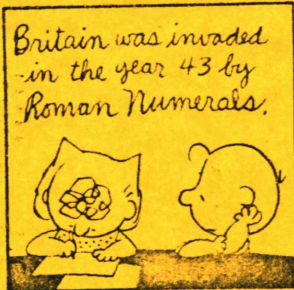

The deadline is every Wednesday at 2:00 P.M. The paper is distributed every Monday on campus. Copy received after the Wednesday deadline will be included in the issue published one week later.

Thank you for your cooperation.

FROM THE DEAN'S OFFICE

I will be off campus next week. If any decisions need to be made or if any problems arise regarding students, please contact Sister James Marien; regarding plant or maintenance, Sister Barbara Cotton; and regarding faculty, Father Delaney.

Congratulations to Dr. Alexis Navarro on the publication of her monograph, Choosing the Single Life, by Franciscan Communications.

Mid-Semester Notices

During the next two weeks, instructors will be issuing mid-semester notices to students who are not achieving a "C" or better in their classes. Instructors will assess the cause of the difficulty. Students should see their instructor if they have any questions. There is still time to improve the grade before the end of the semester. Students should make use of all the helps available: the instructor's assistance, the Learning Resource Center, tutors, study groups, etc.

From Higher Education and National Affairs - Sept. 10, 1984
(DOES THIS DESCRIBE YOU?)

Freshmen Expectations "too great" - Research has indicated college freshmen have unrealistically high expectations for themselves. In a sampling of 18,000 incoming freshmen at Penn State during the past two years, nearly the entire freshmen class - 98%-said they expect to have a "B" grade point average at the end of their first year of study. Yet, researchers say, an equal percentage of students had not maintained a "B" average in high school.

"They seem to expect some magical transformation," said James J. Kelly, Academic Information Program Coordinator in the Division of Undergraduate Studies. Kelly said approximately 90% of the incoming freshmen at Penn State have filled out an Educational Planning Survey during the last two years.

The survey also showed that while 67% of incoming freshmen spent 10 hours a week or less studying in high school, 96% believe their study skills are "excellent to good", Kelly noted. "However, 61% estimate that they will study 20 hours or less per week, when, in fact, it is important for students to recognize that going to college is a full-time job requiring a minimum of 40 hours a week between classes and study," he said.

FROM THE ADVISEMENT CENTER

PRE-HEALTH SCIENCE STUDENTS: REMINDER:

The BASIC MATH SKILLS TEST is being given Monday, today. Only those students who have signed up in Building #2 may take the test at this time. There will be other opportunities to take this test.

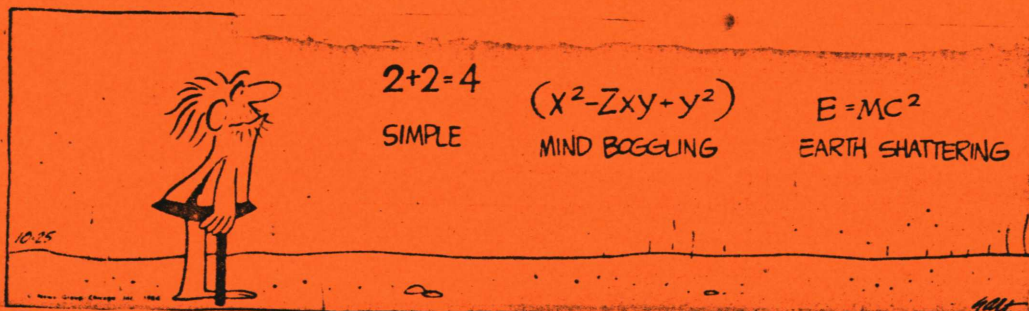

STUDENTS PLANNING TO GRADUATE IN JUNE 1985: REMINDER:

Those who received notices from Sister Rose Leonard concerning Reading and Math RETESTS and have not yet retested need to get to Building #7 TODAY. (See Dateline for times.)

FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT SERVICES

THANK YOU! A major-sized THANK YOU is in store for all the Doheny students who helped as hostesses for Sunday's Dedication. All of the assistance was appreciated -- we could not have done it without you!

B.C. By Johnny Hart

PARKING -- AGAIN!

It seems as if this message is being repeated far too often of late, but it appears that many of you need the reminder. PLEASE be sure that you have a parking decal VISIBLE in or on your vehicle. In addition, take the extra minute to be sure you are parked between the yellow lines. We are still losing spaces because some people insist on slanting their cars in such a way as to take two spaces! And finally, if you receive a citation -- whether you are faculty, staff or student -- come in and pay the fine. I am collecting the tickets, and we will tow the repeat offenders without further notice. Don't be the one!

DELTAS:

We are still looking for more students to serve as official campus hostesses as Deltas. If you are interested, please come by Building 7 for an application. Several events will take place throughout the year, which will require the services of our students. It would be great to have more of you be a part of them. Sign up today.

FOOD SERVICE I. D. CARDS!

Some few resident students managed to miss having their I.D. cards made even after four weeks of picture taking. These "special few" may have their cards prepared fr this one last time on Tuesday, Oct. 30 from 5-6 P.M. in the small dining room to the right of the front door of Ahmanson Commons. PLEASE BE THERE!

AND FINALLY -- ONE MORE BIT OF THANKS!

As this Happenings goes to press, it is not really clear if Doheny will be fielding a student team for the Oct. 27 softball tournament. However, if we do not get a group on the field, it will not be the fault of the chief organizer, Julie Cummins, who has tried diligently to get together a team for this "challenge" game. Thanks, Julie -- whether Doheny plays or not, you gave it your best shot! (Hopefully, by the time this is read, not only will we have played, but we will be victorious and have a trophy to prove it!)

FROM CAMPUS MINISTRY

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Thank you, Father, for my friends, for all their kindness--the way they come to help me when the pressures mount--forgetting their own!--the way their sympathy softens the bitterness when things go wrong.

With all my heart I want to be a friend, good and reliable and quick to notice need, to all of those I meet who want my friendship, Lord, and Yours.

RETREAT: Still not too late. There is a time for YOU! Why not make it this weekend? Big Bear--Fall is autumn leaves, brisk mornings and warm evenings by the fireplace...and most of all a time for reflection! Yes, it is not too late to join us. Contact Campus Ministry Office! You can have time for study, sharing, praying.

MEXICO TRIP-INTERTERM

Those interested in this Interterm tour-class, make sure you come to the meeting tonight, Monday, October 29, at 7:45 P.M. in Bldg. 7. All intending to go are expected to attend this meeting. If you cannot make it, contact Sister Consuelo.

A student may earn up to six units of credit for interning during her degree program. The job which you presently have may qualify you for an internship if it is challenging and provides opportunities for learning new skills. Brochures are available in the Career Center.

PART AND FULL TIME JOBS New job listings posted this week on the Career Center include administrative assistant, assistant manager, secretary, scout leader and sales representative. For best results in your job search, check the job board located in the Career Center weekly.

FROM THE DEAN'S OFFICE

A very special THANK YOU to each of you who made last Sunday's Dedication such a memorable occasion for our campus. Thank you to all faculty and staff who planned the day, and to all who set up, fixed flowers, gave tours and did all the other behind-the-scenes activities that make such an event successful. Thank you to Mr. Blundell, Mr. Juarez and all our men who so generously did all the extra work needed. And last but not least, to those who prepared and served at dinner: Eddie and the Food Service staff and our students--their hospitality and graciousness were outstanding; to those who participated and enjoyed the festivities; to those who were there and to all for your cooperation. It was truly a day of celebrating the Mount Community, past, present and future.

TO ALL STUDENTS WHO HAVE RECEIVED 2 OR MORE MID-SEMESTER NOTICES:

Please make an appointment with my Secretary, Gretchen, (in Bldg. #10) to see me regarding your academic difficulties.

Sister Kathleen Kelly, Dean

FROM THE REGISTRAR'S OFFICE

Registration for Interterm/Spring '85 will be held between November 12 and November 28. Registration material will be available for students to pick up from the Registrar's Office beginning Monday, November 12 at 9:00 A.M. You will receive a card with your registration material telling you when you may file your registration with the Registrar. Make an appointment with your advisor for discussion of your program. This is especially important for those who are planning to graduate in the Spring '85. (Have you met the graduation requirements? Do you have enough credits?)

INTERTERM - Students who are planning on independent study for Interterm should make arrangements with the faculty member with whom they will be working by November 12.

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU! A big thanks to all of you who helped make this Halloween so special for all of the children of the Child Development Center. Everyone had a wonderful time, thanks to all of the Doheny spirit.

Dr. Vivan Harper, Director

FROM THE STUDENT SERVICES OFFICE

ANY MORE DELTAS?

If there are any more students who wish to sign up as Deltas, the official hostesses of the Doheny Campus, please hand in your forms at Bldg. 7 as soon as possible. We still have plenty of space!

INSURANCE CARDS

Any students who signed up for the school insurance should come by Office 4, Bldg. 7 to pick up your I.D. cards from the Mutual of Omaha. You will need these as identification if you ever have to use the service.

POOL KEYS:

For those of you still interested in swimming, pool keys are available. Resident students can locate one in each dorm, and the commuters can pick up one at the front desk in Bldg. 7. Be sure to always sign out the key, and then return it after use so that others can have it available. Also, please be sure to close the pool door when you are inside -- this prohibits strangers from entering the area.

FROM THE CAMPUS MINISTRY OFFICE

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

Hesitation: Jesus, I saw you in the street today, and felt ashamed. It was when the old woman fell, ragged and dirty, unsteady on her feet, lay in a heap. And while I paused, the boy ran forward, black jacket, crash helmet jeans, and picked her up, her worn slippers on her bare feet, and wiped the dirt from her bewildered face, led her away. Why did I hesitate, Lord? Because I paused, I let an opportunity to do good, to be like you, go by. Give me a ready heart-- ready to pity, to comfort and to LOVE. Give me a chance to prove I love, and to run and do what you'd have done.

THANKSGIVING FOOD

Now is your chance to NOT HESITATE and share either some money or bring some canned goods/powdered mixes, powdered milk for the poor and needy. St. Vincent's could use extra help this Thanksgiving to aid their needy in the parish. Will you lend a helping hand? Thanks to those who have already contributed...we have $35.00--a good beginning! Robin Chantlin and Pat Daughtrey will accept whatever you give them, or you can bring your contribution to the Campus Ministry Office...or leave it in a box in Bldg. 4 or Ahmanson Commons.

FROM CAMPUS MINISTRY AND LEADERSHIP

LAST CHANCE TO LEARN ABOUT THE ISSUES BEFORE YOU VOTE!

From 11 to 2 today in the cafeteria, there will be displays, materials and people available to discuss their positions on propositions and candidates. Faculty, staff and students are invited to drop in and share your views, ask questions and pick up information. Your vote is important. Be an educated voter!

FROM LEADERSHIP

A word of appreciation to the freshmen class...the speakers who came to campus last Monday for the Career Panel were very impressed with the College. One of the panelists remarked about how attentive the audience had been and how good the questions were. Keep up the good work, Freshmen!

FROM THE CAREER CENTERINTERNSHIPS

Plan ahead! Brochures which explain our internship program, Partners In Education, are available at the Career Center. If you want to clarify career goals, learn more about the work environment, or acquire knowledge not ordinarily taught in the classroom, an internship may be exactly what you want.

PART AND FULL TIME JOBS

If you want to find out more about a particular career, check the Occupational Briefs located in the foyer of Bldg. 7. For each occupation, the Briefs describe work performed, working conditions, hours and earnings, education and training, personal qualifications, and more.

FROM THE OFFICE OF PRESS RELATIONS

DON'T MISS reading and sharing the Mount news in the bright yellow markers that appeared on both campuses last Friday. If you haven't received your marker yet, inquire at the Chalon mailroom or the Doheny Switchboard. Feel free to ask for extra copies to send to parents and friends. Also, copies of Shirley Hufsteadler's 1984 Commencement address are now available in booklet format--enjoy the photos along with the text!

FROM THE OFFICE OF LAUGHS, JOKES AND SMILES

A neighborhood dog was looking for a job. He passed an office with a sign saying they wanted an experienced worker who was an excellent typist, who knew how to operate a computer, and was bilingual.

"Ah, that's for me," thought the dog. He picked up the sign and walked into the office.

"Don't tell me you're applying for the job?," said the astonished manager.

"Woof," said the dog, and he walked over to the typewriter and typed 75 words a minute without an error. Then he went to the computer and produced a perfect readout on the history of dog breeding.

"Well, that's great," said the manager, "But are you bilingual?"

"Meow, meow," said the dog.

SUGGESTIONS FOR INTERTERM

MEXICO: TRAVEL EXPERIENCE DURING INTERTERM???

Why not? It is a possibility for anyone who would like to combine culture, learning and excitement into a three-week, three-unit, never-a-dull-moment-experience! If you are interested, please drop by the Campus Ministry Office and make some inquiries. Cost: $925.00 (including deposit) for Puerto Vallarta, Guadalajara, Merida, Can-Cun, Mexico City, Taxco and Cuernavaca... and who knows where else! Become immersed in the three cultures, a warm climate and loving people. Money well-spent!

INTERTERM EXCHANGE:

How would you feel about spending the month of January some place other than Los Angeles? How about sharing an adventure in Minnesota? In Upper New York State? Texas? Washington State? If any of these sound appealing and you are interested in finding out more, there will be some information available in Building 7, on Monday, Nov. 12, from 1:30 - 3:30 P.M. Drop by to look it over and to ask any questions you might have. If this time is not good, feel free to come by Bldg. 7, during the next couple of weeks, to check out the idea. It is a great change to see other parts of the country and enjoy new scenery while you meet new people. Think about it during registration time.

INDEPENDENT STUDY:

Students who are planning on independent study for Interterm should make arrangements with the faculty member with whom they will be working by November 12.

FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT SERVICES

LAST CALL FOR DELTAS

Are any forms still out there? If so, please bring them by the Student Services Office this week. The name plates need to be ordered, and it is easier to do it all at once. We still could use more members -- people interested in serving as Campus Hostesses throughout the year. It is voluntary -- you only sign up for the events when you have the time and interest. Several things are on the horizon; the Christmas Open House, the Early Childhood Tour, the Da Camera Society concerts, and more. Be a part and join today!

HEALTH FORMS FOR USC!

Several of you do not read the bulletin boards -- and maybe you won't read this either! However, I still need to have your health forms for the Service at USC. It is important that they have this information on file about you just in case you need them -- you will not always be in the state to give them the necessary data when you are brought in for an emergency. So, please do it now and hand these forms in to Bldg. 7.

AND, INSURANCE CARDS!

If you have signed up for the school insurance, please come by Bldg. 7 and pick up your I.D. card. You will need this in case of accident or medical emergency. So, get yours today!

ARE YOU READING SIGNS?

In these days when we are "over-signed" -- a time when our attention is constantly being drawn to "read this", "notice that", etc. -- we do have to remind some of you to be alert to the bulletin boards in Bldg. 4. Several personal notices relating to Financial Aid, Advisement, Learning Resource Center, etc. seem to stay on the board for days. Residents and commuters alike should check daily just in case a contact is being made. Please try to remember!

FROM THE CAMPUS MINISTRY OFFICETHOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

God, by your power, Christ conquered death and returned to you in glory. May all your people who have gone before us in faith share His victory and enjoy the vision of your glory for ever!

Let us not forget to pray for our loved ones who have died. Drop into the chapel and say a prayer for those whom no one remembers. Prayers are powerful!

MEDITATION

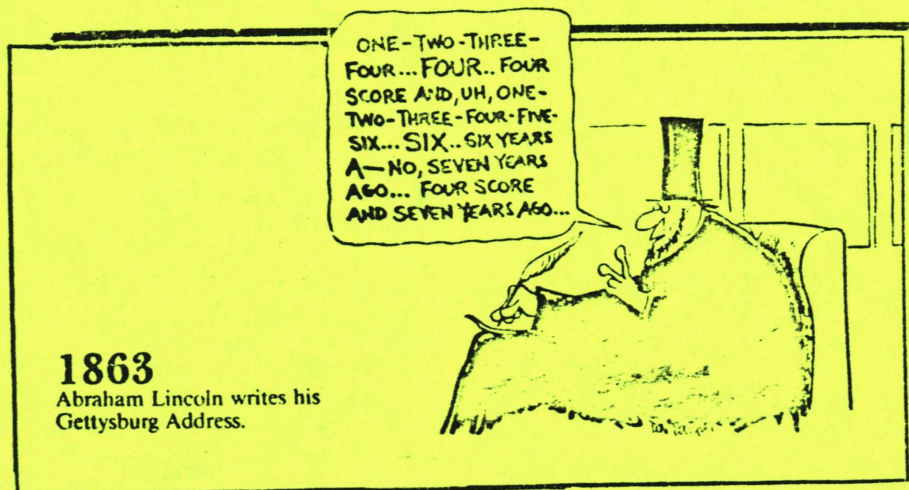

"The real function of discipline is not to provide us with maps, but to sharpen our own sense of direction so that when we really get going we can travel without the maps."

- from Contemplation in a World of Action, by Thomas Merton

ONCE AN ACORN

" Sometimes to make it big, you first have to make it small. Conrad Hilton started out sweeping floors in a dusty New Mexico hotel. He cleaned up as the owner of a famous hotel chain. John Paul Getty started with a $500.00 oil lease in Oklahoma and became one of America's richest men. David Packard baked paint onto his first product in the kitchen oven. Forty-five years later he was running a $4.7 billion company. There are anonymous men and women starting small today whose names will be household words in 20 years. Will one of those names be yours? Get started!"

My prayer this Thanksgiving continues to be one of gratitude for each of you in our Doheny Community and that God will continue to bless you and your families.

Have a Happy Thanksgiving and a relaxing holiday!

FROM THE CAREER CENTERINTERNSHIPS

In planning your Spring Term schedule, consider taking 1-3 units of Internship. If you have a job in which you use Communication or Managerial Skills which you can relate to College or Career goals, an Internship may be ideal for you.

Brochures for "Partners in Education" are available from Dr. Keeler in the Career Center.

FULL-TIME JOBS

Our Career Center has been reorganized for your convenience. Information on full-time positions are now located in a magazine rack and on the table in the foyer as you enter Building 7.

The magazine rack contains: (1) books and pamphlets for full-time jobs; and (2) clipboards for job openings in the business, clerical, education, health and non-traditional areas. Information on the clipboards is dated weekly.

Please use all materials in the foyer and return them to the magazine rack when you are finished. Materials may not be taken from Building 7. Thank you!

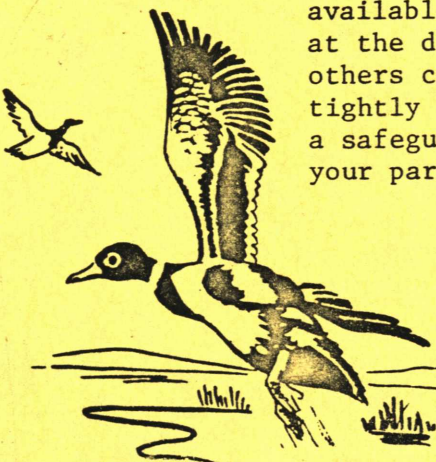

FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT SERVICES

SOME REMINDERS: Only a few students have come by to check on their insurance cards. Please be sure to do this soon as they are your identification in case of accident or injury. Come to the Student Services Office in #7.

Have you paid your parking fines? Some people are being responsible and others are not. This latter group should be sure to take care of this piece of unfinished business soon. We would not want to have to tow the cars of repeat offenders or withhold grades at the end of the semester!

Be sure to keep up with the news on the bulletin boards in #4. New things go up quite frequently, and some of you are still missing the individual notices and reminders.

SWIMMING, ANYONE? Although it isn't exactly summer weather these days, some of you heartier souls might want to "take a dip". If so, keys are available -- for residents in each house/dorm and for commuters at the desk in #7. Be sure to sign out and return the key so others can then use it. Also, it is wise to close the door tightly in the pool area as you enter and as you leave. This is a safeguard to keep unauthorized people out of the area. Do your part!

AND WHILE WE'RE ON THE SUBJECT:

As another safety tip, it is time to remind one another to be aware of "unknown" people on the campus, and especially in the buildings. Authorized people on campus are here for business reasons and are, therefore, here with permission. Usually this will mean that they are accompanied by someone from the College -- this is always true in the buildings! As a College Person, you have a right AND a responsibility to question any unaccompanied person on campus. Do your part here! If you are suspicious at all, call the guard, the switchboard, Mr. Blundell, or one of the offices to check it out. Do not take it upon yourself to let people "tour", take pictures, etc. -- CHECK! Thank you for your cooperation -- all of us will feel safer if each of us is cautious!

FROM THE CAMPUS MINISTRY OFFICE:

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

I thank you, my God and Father, for the many gifts you have given me: the gift of life, of energy, rest, renewal of spirit, friends, loving Mom and Dad, dreams, FAITH in You, TRUST in You and LOVE. May I find You in all things, and, most of all, may I never forget to share YOUR GOODNESS that is IN ME with others. Thank You for this time in our lives to remind us of the fact that all that we have and all that we are comes from YOU. THANK YOU.

WAYS OF GIVING THANKS:

Nov. 19-21:

Don't forget to contribute to the FOOD COLLECTION BOX in Building 4; there is also one in the CAMPUS MINISTRY OFFICE. Your contribution will be given to someone in need.

Nov. 19:

At CHALON in the Campus Ministry Office (first floor of the Humanities Bldg.) a Soup and Bread meal will be served at 5 P.M.; this will be an opportunity for anyone who would like to share the price of a dinner with poor women. The money donations will be sent to House of Ruth. A filmstrip will be shown on hunger to remind us of what other parts of the world are suffering. (Remember you will have plenty of time to catch the last shuttle back to Doheny which leaves after 6 P.M.-- in case that would be a problem.)

DANCE FOR TOYS!

1. 25¢ tickets will be sold for door prizes
Nov. 26-30.

2. Invite your friends!

3. Flyers will have details.
Be sure you get one!

4. Invite young men and their friends, we need them!

Whoever thought YOU would dance the night away for the price of a children's toy? At Doheny, why not? Please keep December 1 open for a night of tinsel, lights, good music, door prizes, refreshments and fun. Who knows, you may meet that Prince Charming you've been dreaming about! Why are Campus Ministry and Student Services sponsoring a Dance together? An opportunity to do something for others as well as receive something in return is not impossible and that is what will be happening on the night of December 1. Your entrance to the Dance will be a child's gift for Christmas (to be placed under our tree!) or a money donation of $3.50 for a dance-fun evening lasting from 8:30 to 1 A.M. The disc jockeys will be terrific, the refreshments and door prizes deliciously good. So remember to come to DOHENY, THE NIGHT OF DECEMBER 1, for a NIGHT TO REMEMBER! Who knows, Santa may show up too!

5. Collect your TOY for the Dance during the Thanksgiving Holidays!

The plant next to the front door of Ahmanson Commons is MISSING. Plants and decorations in public areas are put there for all to enjoy. Whoever removed the plant is denying that pleasure to all who use Ahmanson Commons.

PLEASE RETURN THE PLANT TO ITS PROPER PLACE!

Sister Katie in Bldg. 1 will be more than happy to purchase plants on order at a wholesale price for any student.

FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT SERVICES

TV TAPING:

GIMME A BREAK!

Today, Monday, December 3, is the day for a Doheny trip to the studio for a TV taping of "Gimme a Break" -the popular television comedy starring Nell Carter. A bus will pick up the group here at about 3:45 P.M. It will return at approximately 7 P.M. Try to come if you can — bring a friend — all have to be at least 16 years of age! Sign up sheets have been available in #4 and the foyer of Ahmanson Commons. There is still time as the bus holds 45!

INSURANCE CARDS!

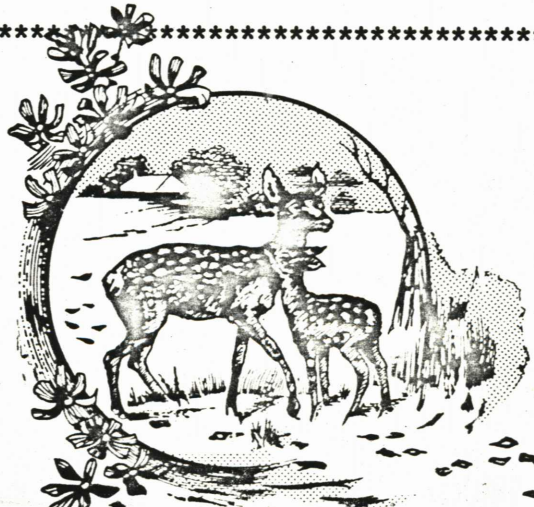

Have some of your forgotten all about this? Please come by and pick your card up in Building 7 as soon as possible. You really do need to have it in your possession just in case you have some kind of emergency. Please! I would really like to finish this off!

PARKING TICKETS!

This is sounding like a broken record, but several of you are being very negligent about paying the fines for parking violations. Your report cards can be held for unpaid fines -- so please come by Office 4, Bldg. 7 and take care of them now!

CHRISTMAS BOUTIQUE

Do you have any particular craft talent or know anyone who does? If so, we could sponsor one at our annual Christmas Fair on the campus. It is an opportunity to pick up some Christmas gifts or to make some extra money if you have items for sale. I would like some sort of "feel" from the students to see if we should try to have a Fair in the next couple of weeks. If you have a thought one way or the other, please let us know in Building 7.

FROM THE CAMPUS MINISTRY OFFICE

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Advent is a time for preparing with hope, waiting with patience, and celebrating with faith. Let us pray more fervently during this season of Advent waiting...in preparation for the coming of the Christ Child...What are we going to Gift-Give to Him on Christmas Day? What can we do or try to become during this Advent Season? A kind word?...daily prayer before the Blessed Sacrament in the Chapel?...daily Mass?...helping someone in need? All these are a step in the right direction.

"I wait for the Lord, my soul waits,
and in His Word I hope;
My soul waits for the Lord
more than watchmen wait for the morning..."
(Ps. 130)

CHRISTMAS CAROLING

Anyone interested in planning a Christmas Caroling excursion? See Sister Consuelo in the Campus Ministry Office or wherever... We need a student director.

FAITH-SHARING/PRAYER/SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION:

Classes have begun on Monday evenings at 7:40 P.M. Anyone interested is welcome. Campus Ministry Office

DECEMBER 20:

FOOD AND CLOTHING COLLECTION IS CONTINUING:

Please pick up a list of things we can collect for THE HOUSE OF RUTH for Christmas. This is a home for homeless, battered women. Let's remember them this Christmas. Place your contribution in the boxes in Bldg. 4 or 7. Thank you.

FROM THE DEAN'S OFFICE

May this Christmas season bring each of you and your families the blessings of Christ - peace, joy and love. During this holiday season, may you relax and enjoy special times with family and friends. Have a joyous Christmas, Happy New Year, and return refreshed and renewed.

YELLOW COMMUTER MAILBOXES will be in place in the "Wigwam" by Wednesday. Please be sure to check them frequently. Please do check on Thursday or Friday to pick up your Christmas Cards from the Dean. There will be one in your mailbox for you.

We have a NEW GUARD SERVICE as of December 1. All Mount personnel, faculty, staff, and students are asked to carry Mount identification. This is especially important during late night hours.

The newly formed DEAN'S ADVISORY BOARD will meet for the first time on DECEMBER 12, at 7:30 A.M. This will be a breakfast meeting in the Executive Conference Room in Bldg. #10.

FROM THE REGISTRAR'S OFFICE Copies of individual class schedules for Interterm and Spring can be picked up in the Registrar's Office in Bldg. 10, beginning Monday, December 10.

FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT SERVICES

A LITTLE

PRE-CHRISTMAS CHEER!

Feel in the mood for jingle bells and the sounds of Christmas? If so, we have a little celebration to invite you to on Wednesday, Dec. 12. It begins with the noon Mass in Our Lady of Mercy Chapel, but it doesn't stop there.

We invite all of you -- especially the commuter students -- to share in some cheer following Mass. We will be on the patio and in Donohue Conference Room with some refreshments and surprises. Come by for a few minutes beginning about 12:15 or after the Mass. Start to feel the holiday mood!

A MINI-MINI-MINI

CHRISTMAS BOUTIQUE

Since the season is upon us and time for Christmas shopping is now, we thought we would provide an opportunity for you to pick up some "stocking stuffers" and the like.

On Tuesday, Dec. 11, from 11:30-1:30, some Doheny people will be selling items in the lobby of Ahmanson Commons. We won't promise tons of things, but some of our students, faculty and staff members have home-made treasures to share. Bring your change and drop by for a purchase or two. Come early before we run out!

Anyone wishing to sell things should see us in Bldg. 7 by Monday afternoon so that table space can be arranged for you.

AND HERE'S SCROOGE!

Yes, baa-humbug, someone must rain on your parade. However, here is the last reminder about paying your parking citations. The time is now!

(It would be a shame to have your vehicles towed at this happy time of year, but Santa is in need of extra sleighs, and I mentioned that several were available at Doheny in lieu of unpaid fines. We'd appreciate it if those of you intending to be towed would empty your car trunks so that more of Santa's toys can fit! DO YOU GET THE PICTURE?)

LAST CALL...

Insurance cards are now available in Building 7. Get yours now or pray real hard that you have no need for such an identification during the New Year!

THANK YOU, THANK YOU

To those students responsible for the Christmas Cheer Dance on Dec. 1, especially to Candace Jimmons. Many talented people were a part of the event, and that is what made it a success! We are all grateful.

CONGRATULATIONS TOO!

These wishes are meant for those students from the dance class at Doheny who performed in "The Legend of the Snow Leopard". It was a wonderful show and enjoyed by all of us in attendance.

FROM THE CAMPUS MINISTRY OFFICE

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

The season of Advent is like a high plateau on which a sentry stands, shouting the good news of a coming Someone with power and victory and trophies. He is gentle as a shepherd gathering in His arms the faltering lambs. The onrushing joy is one of great happiness and preparation.

(from Second Sunday of Advent: Advent Reflections: Cardinal T. Manning).

SPECIAL CELEBRATION:

This Wednesday, at noon, a special liturgy will be offered for Advent that will include honoring OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE, PATRONESS OF THE AMERICAS. We invite you all to join us in the celebration of Mass at 12 followed by a pinata-breaking party in the patio. Interesting goodies will be provided not only inside the 'pinata' but on the buffet table as well. Take a few minutes to commemorate and celebrate! All work and no play can make(not just Jack but) YOUO a dull girl!

CHRISTMAS CAROLING

December 14

We will be caroling at convalescent homes(very near here) and at the home of a dear elderly ladys, who lives alone, this Friday at 1 P.M. WE WILL HAVE A SHORT SINGING PRACTICE FROM 12 TO 1 in Campus Ministry Office before we leave. Anyone who would like to join us is welcome. Let Sister Consuelo or Candace Jimmons know if you are interested before Friday, please. (The whole Caroling venture will not last more than an hour)

SOCIAL ACTION CLASS:

You will be receiving your Social Action Service Contracts this week(end of the week) so that you can get your days and hours set up with the supervisor that will be in charge of you. The Seminar Classes will begin on January 8(Tuesday) at 7:40 A.M. in Ahmanson Commons, Room 8. At this time, you will be given the outline for the course entitled "What Does the Future Hold for Women and Children?" For further particulars, see Sister Consuelo.

LAS POSADAS, DECEMBER 20:

On this Thursday evening, we invite anyone who would like to be hostess to St. Vincent's Parish on one of their Posada evenings. They will conclude their Posada journey (which we can also join) down our Chester Place Street in front of the Child Development Center. Maria Cervera and Mary Saldana are the student chairpersons; please contact them and offer your services; your help will be greatly appreciated, and you can be assured your time and effort will not go unrewarded! (What we will be doing: setting up the buffet for bunelos and hot chocolate; fixing the pinata and putting it up on the tree and placing the 'luminarios' down our street (paper bags filled with sand—lit with a candle). Don't forget to contact the two Maria's if you want to help.

ADVENT RECOLLECTION

Reconciliation Service

FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT SERVICESTIME ON YOUR HANDS? NEED SOMETHING TO DO?

During Interterm, it sometimes is the case that you have some extra hours to fill. This is the time to do some of that leisure reading you never get around to, to write some of those letters which you owe, to do all the little odds-and-ends that never seem to get done.

But, these might not take up all your time and if that is the case, perhaps you would be interested in some of the following:

TV TAPING:

On Tuesday, January 22, we will be sponsoring a group trip to the taping of "Facts of Life". If we get a group of 40, they will provide a bus. Departure time would be 4:45 P.M. from in front of #15. Resident students will either be able to eat early or take a box-dinner with them. The return will be at about 8 P.M. A sign-up sheet is available in #15, #4 and Ahmanson Commons. Please sign by the 17th so that we can make final arrangements. If you sign, BE SURE that you come!

A NIGHT AT THE PANTAGES!

We are attempting to arrange a group night at the Pantages to see "La Cage Aux Folles". The tickets would be $10.00 for the balcony. A sign-up sheet to see what kind of interest we have is in Building #4 and #15. We would try for a Wednesday evening performance, either on January 23 or January 30. Sign as soon as possible if you would like to attend this musical hit.

FROM THE FINANCIAL AID OFFICE

A REMINDER: FOR ALL STUDENTS interested in Financial Aid for '85 - '86:
You must apply during January.

FOR ALL CAL GRANT RENEWALS AND NEW APPLICANTS: You must apply by February 11.

For more information contact David Garza at the Chalon Campus, 476-2237, ext. 3210

ANY OTHER IDEAS?

If you have an idea of an excursion and would like to help putting together a group, just drop by Building 7 any afternoon and we can try to make a plan. Perhaps this might be a trip to Disneyland, Magic Mountain, NBC Studios, Universal Studios, Catalina Island, or even Whale Watching on the Pacific! This is the time to do those extra things, so think ahead and come in! Others probably just need a little push to join in! (Also, University Village Theater has student discounts on Wednesday night - show your I.D. Card.)

PARKING!

Interterm mornings have become very busy in the parking areas of the Doheny Campus. Please be sure to observe all the rules and have your decal visible (they are available in Bldg. #7). If the streets of St. James and Chester are full, just drive around the block and use the St. Vincent's Church lot. Residents may use the lot behind the castle too. Thank you for your patience and cooperation.

PLAN AHEAD!

A couple of events are in the planning stages, but you might want to jot the dates in your calendars today.

Wednesday, February 27 -- "Golden Bough", an Irish Folk Group will appear in the Pompeian Room. Tickets will be limited so plan to attend now.

"Cats" -- a group excursion is possible for a weekend in March. Look in Doheny Happenings for more details in Spring. The tickets will be $18.00 a piece for the balcony.

FROM PHI GAMMA NU

The professional business sorority of Mount St. Mary's College will begin spring rush on February 11th. If you are a business major or will carry at least three units of business class, Phi Gamma Nu may be just for you! The sorority is an excellent way to gain the confidence and skills needed for future businesswomen. In addition, Phi Gamma Nu members enjoy exciting social activities such as fund-raisers, fraternity exchanges, and a spring presents ball. More information will be posted on the Phi Gamma Nu bulletin board located in Bldg. #4, throughout the month of January.

NEXT ISSUE

The next issue of DOHENY HAPPENINGS will be published Monday, February 11, the first day of Spring Term. Deadline for articles will be Wednesday, January 30, 2:00 P.M.

WORK

The difference between winning and losing, and being the best and being near-best, is practice. Practice and hard work. Practice doesn't make perfect. Perfect practice makes perfect. And that means work. Hard work.

When told he was a genius, Paderewski said: "Before I was a genius, I was a drudge." Nothing worthwhile comes easily. Half effort does not produce half results — it produces no results. Work, hard work, continuous work is the only way to accomplish great achievements. Don't worry about genius. Don't worry about being clever. Trust to hard work. Ecclesiastes admonished: "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with all thy power and might."

It is important to dream. But it is sublime to dream and work. Faith is important. But faith with work is mightier. Desire is important. But desire and work are invincible.

There is a nobility about hard work. Even the weariness it leaves is exhilarating. Hard work is not hard work at all to the enthusiast. It is intoxicating. The privations. The hardships. The long days and long nights. All are worth the price, and the price is worth it — results and success. To win requires hard work and iron resolution. And supreme effort and self-sacrifice. The power of work and the sense of duty brings no greater joy in life.

Life is an unending succession of opportunities. "I can't do it," never accomplished anything. "I shall try . . . I shall work at it . . . I shall make it happen" — these perform miracles. Opportunities are seized and vanquished by work.

Work touches the heart with fire. It instills zeal in life. It provides purpose and pride. Men of talent — willing to sacrifice and work — make the discoveries, write the books, produce the arts, win the campaigns, and order the world. New actions. New aspirations. New efforts. New vision. All these are due less to genius than to perseverance and determination. The winner is he who gives himself to his work — body and soul.

"I'm a great believer in luck," said Thomas Jefferson, "and the harder I work, the more luck I have." Nothing is really work unless you would prefer doing something else. Idleness is spiritual sterility. Man thrives on creative challenge and the passion of achievement and work.

You get in life what you want. Success depends on how much you want it. And how much you are willing to dream, plan, and work. High resolve. Unrelenting effort. Purposeful direction. Work — hard work. And the greatest of these is hard work.

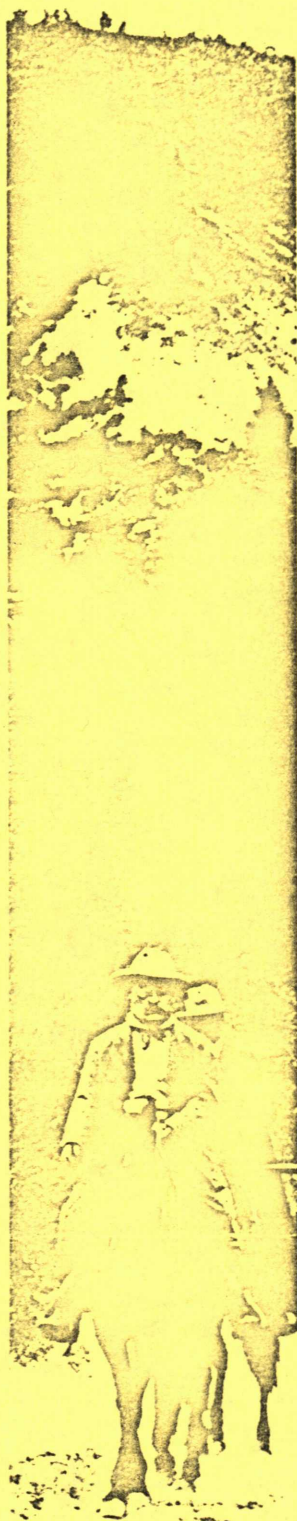

The world is divided into three types: those who are immovable; those who are movable; and those who move. Hard work is the mightiest and most powerful force on earth. Those who move the world are workers — and they have changed the course of history since the dawn of mankind.

j.p.

"I don't like to lose. I never have. I never will. The thought is repugnant to me. Because defeat means only one thing — failure to meet your objective.

The trouble in America today — in business, in government, and in organizations — is that too many people are afraid of the active life, competition, and hard work. The result is that in some circles, people have come to sneer at success if it means training, sacrifice, and hard work."

FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT SERVICES

Here we go again! For most of you, WELCOME BACK! And, for those of you new to Doheny, WELCOME -- WE'RE VERY GLAD TO HAVE YOU WITH US!

NEW STUDENTS!

I.D. CARDS!

A brief orientation will be offered for you on Tuesday Feb. 12. from 11:30 - 12:15 in Ahmanson Commons Bldg. 11. Bring your lunch if you wish -- we will have some refreshments too. It is a drop-in affair so you can come by between classes. We just want a change to meet you, answer some questions, hand out the "Doheny" things which will make you feel more at home with us. SEE YOU THERE!

For all new students, and those of you who missed in the Fall, I.D. cards and Food Service cards will be given out this week in Office 4 of Bldg. 7. The hours are: Monday, 9-12 and 1-3; Tuesday, 1:30 - 3; other times as posted or needed. Be sure to get yours right away!

PARKING DECALS!

All vehicles on campus need to have an identifying decal visible on the bumper or dashboard. Please come by Bldg. 7 as soon as possible and pick yours up. The receptionist has them available. Tickets are given the second week of the semester.

INTERESTED IN THE ASB BOARD?

Plans are now in the offering to organize a Student Government Board for the Spring semester. An organizational meeting will be held on Wednesday, Feb. 13 at 12:15 P.M. in the Student Services Office in Bldg. 7. If you are interested in being a part, plan to be there. If you cannot be present, please leave word in Bldg. 7 at the Desk that you want to be informed of what is going on. Let's start the new semester off with a splash! All students -- first years and second years, residents and commuters -- are welcome!

SOME DATES TO REMEMBER!

(Did someone say
CATS?!!!)

CATS! We have a block of tickets reserved for Doheny on Sunday, February 24, at the Shubert Theater in Century City. Tickets are $22.00 apiece in the balcony. You may pay for the tickets now in Office 4, Bldg. 7, to reserve them. Come while they last!

GOLDEN BOUGH! On Wednesday, February 27, we will feature the folk group, Golden Bough, in concert in the Pompeian Room at 8 P.M. Tickets at $3.00; students $2.00. It is a definite musical treat so plan to attend!

FROM THE CAMPUS MINISTRY OFFICE

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Let us exercise our desires, our dreams and our hopes in prayer. Instead of praying, why do we turn to so many other things? Why not, instead, say with the psalmist: I have asked one thing from the Lord; this is what I will seek to dwell in the Lord's house all the days of my life, to see the graciousness of the Lord, and visit his temple.

It is true that God cares for us and knows our need before we ask for it, so why should He ask us to pray, when He knows what we are going to say? God our Father wants us to exercise our desire through prayer so we may be able to receive what he has prepared to give us. Remember, the deeper our faith, the stronger our hope, the greater our desire, the larger will our capacity to receive that gift, which is very great indeed!! So, pray, unceasingly, as we have been told to do by the apostle John: Pray always. Drop in to His temple and just be in His Presence. Sometimes words are not necessary; just being in the Lord's House, quietly spending time with the Lord is sufficient.

SPRING ACTIVITIES!

The Campus Ministry Office again invites you to participate in some of the activities we hope to get off the ground this semester. Please drop by the office and sign up on the bulletin board. The attached calendar with activity descriptions will give you an idea of how you can generate some energy through service in the social, community, outreach, religious and spiritual growth-doings on and off campus.

LENT WILL SOON BE UPON US!

There will be a 7 P.M. liturgical service on Wednesday, February 20, during which time ashes will be distributed. If anyone is interested in administering the ashes and helping plan the service, please contact Sister Consuelo this week.

WEDNESDAY NOON LITURGY/PRAYER SERVICE

If anyone would like to suggest ideas/or be on a planning committee for our Wednesday Noon Praying-Together-Time, please come to Campus Ministry Office this week and discuss your ideas with your Campus Ministry Director. Remember time is set aside for the commuter/resident/student body, faculty and staff to share a few moments of the week in prayer...because WHERE TWO OR THREE ARE GATHERED TOGETHER IN PRAYER, THERE AM I IN THE MIDST OF THEM! (Words of Jesus) . Your input, words of encouragement, etc, will be welcome.

SOCIAL ACTION CLASS

Class will met this Tuesday, in Room 108 at 12 noon. Anyone interested in community outreach is also welcome to find out how you might serve those in need with your talents. One or two extra hours of work can mean so much to those whom who are helping!

STUDENT PEER COUNSELORS

Any student interested in working Fall semester '85 as a Peer Counselor in the ESOLD Program or as a Campus Ministry Assistant, see Sister Conseulo for particulars.

FROM THE NEWS OFFICE

The February MARKER with items on College news and visibility is in your mailbox. If you wish extra copies for mailing, please ask at the Chalon mailroom or at the Doheny switchboard. You can't miss the color -- it's cerise! And for the record,(as they say in the L.A. Times), the student pictured with Dr. Hallie Bundy is misidentified in the Marker. Instead of Lydia Lourito, please read Lilia Parra. Both women are fine biology majors.

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S OFFICE

In response to students' request, the current issue of the MSMC MAGAZINE (a College and alumnae publication) is available at the residence desk in McIntyre Hall and in the Student Services Lobby, Bldg. 7.

THE DEADLINE FOR THE NEXT ISSUE OF DOHENY HAPPENINGS IS WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 13 at 2:00 P.M. Copy should be typed and signed by the person responsible for submitting it.

Come to Campus Ministry Office to sign-up and for further information! Let's get

FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT SERVICES

CATS:

"Jellicle cats, come one come all: Jellicles come to the Jellicle Ball!" The time is approaching--Sunday, February 24, at 7:30 P.M. That's showtime for the Jellicle Cats and their Doheny viewers! Tickets for the balcony are still available at $22.00 each. Be sure to get yours now while they still remain. A worthwhile evening at the Shubert will be your prize!

GOLDEN BOUGH:

Our folk group friends are returning to Campus on Wednesday, Feb. 27, at 8:00 P.M. Tickets are only $3.00. (students - $2.00) Seats are limited due to the size of the Pompeian Room. Bring your friends for a music-filled evening of fun! All will love it!

PARKING:

Citations for vehicles without decals will be given starting today! Be sure you get yours now! If parking is not available on Chester Place or St. James, remember that you can always park in St. Vincent's Church Lot -- entrance on Figueroa -- near the fence side. A gate connects us with the lot.

I.D. CARDS:

Please be sure to get your I.D. card this week. The machine will then be put away! Cards are going to be necessary for entrance to the campus in the evening hours so be sure you have one and carry it with you. In addition, student I.D. cards are often good for discounts at some events and shows. (The theater in University Village recognizes the Mount's card for its student discount shows on Wednesday nights.)

DELTAS:

All "signed" Deltas can report to Building 7 to pick up your nameplates. Any student interested in joining this "official Campus hostess" group may still sign up in Office 4 of Bldg. 7.

FROM THE FOOD SERVICE

FOOD COMMITTEE

Any Resident Student who would like to be a part of a new Food Committee for the Doheny Campus, is encouraged to meet with Ata on Tuesday, February 26 at 6 P.M. in Ahmanson Commons. This will be a chance to organize into an interested group which will work with the Food Service on ideas and concerns related to that area. All are welcome!

FROM THE ASB BOARDBOARD FORMED!

On Wednesday, February 13, the 1985 ASB board met for the first time. The members include: Renee Bahner, Dianna Fowler, Latarsha Garland, Cathy Gonzales, April Guray, Kelly McVicker and Sheila Schleyer. Future plans, events and meetings will be printed in the Happenings. All suggestions, ideas and concerns should be directed to one of the Board members.

The new Board would like to recruit a couple of commuter representatives. If any of you are interested, please notify one of the members or Sr. James Marien. The next meeting will be on Wednesday, Feb. 20 at noon in Bldg. 7.

SADIE HAWKINS
COOKOUT!

The first event planned by the new Board will be a Sadie Hawkins-style cookout on Thursday, Feb. 28. ALL students are invited for dinner by the pool (weather permitting!) with games, prizes and fun! Bring your suit if the weather is good. The time is between 4:30 and 6:00 P.M. Plan to attend -- come "western" if you can (jeans, straw hat, etc.) Circle the date now!

FROM THE CAMPUS MINISTRY OFFICETHOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Let us pray: It is good to give thanks to the Lord, to make music to your name, O most high, to proclaim your love in the morning and your truth in the watches of the night. (from Ps.92)

Are you praying daily? Why not lift your hearts to your God, creator of all good things, and praise Him with words of the psalmist?

ASH WEDNESDAY:

There will be two Liturgies and distribution of Ashes today: 7 A.M. and at 7 P.M. Please come to either one of these services to start your observance of the Lenten Season. If anyone is wanting to assist in the evening service, please see Candace Jimmons or Sister Consuelo.

WEDNESDAY FASTING:

Students are reminded that Ash Wednesday is a day of Fast and Abstinence (no meat); also every Wednesday we hope many will participate in the Bread and Soup nights. In this way we can express our oneness and concern for the poor and hungry, as well as do a little sacrifice.

BAKE SALE!

RETREAT WEEKEND:

March 8-10 is coming soon. Please sign up if you are interested in going on this retreat. It will be held in San Diego.

FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT SERVICES

The time is here -- Wednesday, February 27 at 8:00 P.M. -- for the return to Campus of GOLDEN BOUGH. If you have not had the experience of attending one of their concerts, it is well worth the time. Paul, Lief, Margie, and Florie present Celtie and original music through song and instrumentals (they play about 25 instruments among them!) Tickets are just $3.00 or $2.00 for students. Get yours now in Bldg. 7 or at the door. Bring a friend or two or three for a hand-clapping, foot-stomping time! (It is also your chance to participate in a concert in the Pompeian Room.) Join in the fun!

GRAD BALL

A joint venture of both campuses, this annual Ball is meant to honor ALL the 1985 Graduates of the Mount. Everyone, both Graduates and Undergraduates, is invited to attend. This year the event will be at the Century Plaza Hotel. The Chairperson, Patty Corrales, needs some help in the planning. If anyone would like to be a part of this, please let Sr. James Marien know. More details will be posted in the Happenings in the weeks ahead. Watch for them! A poster on theme suggestions is on the bulletin board in Bldg. 4 -- mark your choices today!

CALENDAR DATES FOR THE FUTURE:

MARCH 12-13

ANNUAL SPRING FAIR -- This is your chance, either as an individual or group to sponsor a booth and sell items or a service. In the past, various departments, clubs, etc. have sold food items, boutique items, and a host of other things to the Campus at large. Plan to participate now. Forms are available in Bldg. 4 and Bldg. 7. More information will be in the next Happenings.

April 1

SPRING BLOOD DRIVE -- The need for donors is again at a critical stage. You are needed so plan now to give. We will hold the drive in Donohue Hall from about 8:30 A.M. to 3:30 P.M. Sign ups will be taken through the Month of March so say "YES" when you are asked. Don't be an April Fool!

FROM THE CAMPUS MINISTRY OFFICE

THOUGHT FOR
THE WEEK

Lent is the season of hope, of new beginnings. It is a time for making promises to God, and remembering God's promises to us. The journey we have been challenged with beginning on Ash Wednesday is a difficult one, but it need not be lonely. It is a journey in trust! Let us set out on that journey together! In this way we can be signs of hope to one another, trusting in the Easter promises of a faithful God.

SOUP AND BREAD
NIGHTS

There will be an opportunity for those who wish to share in the plight of the poor and hungry if we take advantage of the Wednesday night Soup and Bread supper. By only having this for dinner, we can perform a little Lenten sacrifice and become one with those who have less.

LENTEN PRACTICES:

Do not forget to do something positive during this season. Why not assist at the Liturgies during the week, especially the Wednesday noon Mass where we can unite at least once a week in prayerful thanksgiving for God's good gifts to us, or why not offer to help out in some of the Campus Ministry activities.....volunteer services, bake sales, the St. Patrick's Day Dance, the March 19th liturgy, etc., etc. Get involved!

(Cont.)

FEBRUARY 26-TUESDAY:

Churros!!!

Cup-cakes!!!

Cookies!!!

Drink!!!!

Campus Ministry is sponsoring its first BAKE SALE; if you would like to bake something for this Tuesday, we would appreciate it. Bring your cookies, cake, cup-cakes, or whatever, to the Campus Ministry Office before 10:00 A.M. We will be selling outside of Bldg. 4 and outside of Ahmanson Commons. The proceeds will go toward assisting the students who plan to make the Spring Retreat. Don't forget to bring your $$$ and enjoy a snack tomorrow, TUESDAY!

THREE MORE DATES!

Check your calendars! On March 15 we will be sponsoring the St. Pat's Dance! Join the committee! The dance proceeds will go to help the Centers that offer assistance to the poor. We need your support here too! On March 19th, a very special celebration. WE NEED A CHOIR FOR THE DAY! IF YOU LIKE TO SING, MAKE YOURSELF KNOWN! Two practice times are necessary. Finally, March 8-10, retreat time in San Diego! If you want to go, plan ahead! See Sr. Consuelo soon and bring her your reservation slip. There will be some $$$ to help defray the cost (if we have proceeds from the Bake Sale!).

PLANNING MEETING:

This Wednesday, February 27, after Mass at 12:30 P.M. in Ahmanson Commons, those who are interested in helping with the Dance, want to sing in the choir or help in way, please join us in the small dining room area.

FROM THE ASB OFFICE:

SADIE HAWKINS-STYLE
COOKOUT!

The kick-off event of the new semester is all planned. Do you have your calendars marked for the big event? It is Thursday, February 28, at 4:30 P.M. in the Pool Area (hopefully!) ALL students are invited to join in the fun -- both residents and commuters -- feel free to wear western-style garb just to feel the spirit. It promises to be a fun evening of laughter and smiles! (If weather does not permit the swim party -- we will move to Donohue Hall and the patio by #15.)

FROM THE DEAN'S OFFICE

"Person of the Month"

We would like to give public recognition to students who are outstanding on the Doheny Campus. Each month we will include a nomination form so that anyone can nominate a student who you think deserves recognition: a student who contributes to the College by helping other students; who initiates and follows through on College projects; or who volunteers her time either in the civic community or at the College, in addition to being academically motivated. We encourage you to participate in this recognition program. Two nomination forms are attached. Please complete a form and return it to the Office of the Dean, in Bldg. 10.

Step Early Warning Notices

If you are experiencing academic difficulty, faculty will be giving you a STEP Early Warning Notice. This is only a warning and will give you a chance to improve academically by mid-semester.

FROM THE ADVISEMENT CENTER

Transfer to Chalon

initial
date

ANY STUDENT who is planning to transfer to Chalon must obtain a PROGRAM CHANGE APPLICATION FORM from the REGISTRAR'S OFFICE in Bldg. 10. Get one now; make an appointment with your Advisor soon; please be sure to get the Dean's signature as well as that of your advisor. FORMS MUST BE COMPLETED AND RETURNED TO YOUR ADVISOR by the last Friday of this month: MARCH 29.

Pre-Health/Nursing

There will be a BASIC MATH TEST:

Date: FRIDAY, MARCH 22, 1985

Time: 2-4 P.M.

Place: CHALON CAMPUS, Room H204

Please sign up to take the test on sign-up sheet posted on door, Rm. H204, CHALON or Nursing Office, Bldg. 1, DOHENY. The DEADLINE for signing up is MONDAY, MARCH 18.

A final math test will be given at the end of the Spring 1985 semester in MAY.

All students who wish to qualify for admission into the Nursing Program must successfully (Score of 85% or better) complete the Basic Test

All HSMC students applying for Fall 1985 admission into the Clinical Nursing Program are required to complete applications. APPLICATIONS may be picked up from Sr. Rose in the Advisement Center, Bldg. 7. All RN's, LVN's and transfer students, as well as freshmen, are required to complete applications in order to be considered for acceptance into the Nursing Department. These forms are due by March 13, 1985 at DOHENY (to allow time for getting to Chalon) and March 15 at Chalon.

ATTENTION LVN's

Those students who wish to move directly into the RN program must take the Test for ADVANCED PLACEMENT. This test will be administered WEDNESDAY, MARCH 27, 1985, 10-12. Be sure to let Rita Veatch in the Nursing Office, Bldg. 1, know that you wish to take this test. If you have not signed up, please do so now.

FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT SERVICES

KEEP THOSE CALENDARS IN SIGHT!

March 12-13

ANNUAL SPRING FAIR -- Plan to participate either as a seller or a buyer! It is always a lot of fun and the goodies are delightful! The plan now is to have Mexican food, dessert items, and a booth with Easter surprises. Others are still signing up so the variety will increase. The place is still the patio outside of Bldg. 4-- weather permitting! Forms are still available in Bldg. 4 and Bldg. 7 if you want to reserve a booth -- you can sell items of any kind or a service. Use your imagination and skills.

April 1

SPRING BLOOD DRIVE ON CAMPUS -- Don't be an April Fool! Give a bit of life so that someone else may live! The needs of the Red Cross are always crucial. You never know when you or someone you love might be the ones in need. So plan now to give on Monday, April 1. We need Volunteers who will help to recruit donors. If you are interested in doing some PR work for the Red Cross and helping to make our Blood Drive a successful one, please drop by Bldg. 7 and leave your name. We need to start now to be ready!

PARKING REGULATIONS!

The first regulation of parking at Doheny is to have a parking decal. Do you have yours? If not, you will be receiving parking citations-- which you need to pay in Bldg. 7 right away! Be sure to do this or your cars will be towed. These rules are for everyone on the Doheny Campus -- any students, faculty and staff. Decals are still available in Bldg. 7.

FOOD SERVICE:

This is just a reminder that the Food Service in Ahmanson Commons has set hours of service. No one is to use the Food Service area other than during the designated times. However, the dining rooms on the right, down the stairs and on the upper landing are always open. Resident students from both campuses are able to make arrangements for late meal pick-ups; however, commuters are not eligible for late service. Any problems or questions on this may be directed to the Student Services Office or the Food Service Manager. Thank you for your cooperation.

FROM THE CAMPUS MINISTRY OFFICE

THOUGHT FOR
THE WEEK

Do we willingly reach out to help those in need, or do we ignore them as though they were not present to us? Is there someone in need of our help right now and what can we do to help that person? Lord Jesus, deepen my faith so that I may see you in others and come to YOUR aid. Help us to be more like you by doing good for those in need. Teach me to pray in time of trouble and need; I know you always answer our prayer. I thank you for your love for me; may I never be ungrateful!

BAKE SALE:

Thank you for supporting our CHURRO sale; we sold out in about 1½ hours. We'll have them again for your late morning "munchies". The monies we are collecting will help finance some of our activities. A BIG THANK YOU to Candace, April, Carmen (her cupcake donations-yummy!), Jeannine, and Tammy for their help. OUR NEXT SALE during SPRING FAIRE will feature a "LOW-CALORIE" SALAD BAR and for those not on diets, other delicacies!

RETREAT:

If you really feel in the need of getting away for a weekend to "celebrate your SELF" get your act together-- why not on March 8-10 in San Diego? If financing this retreat is presenting a problem, PLEASE see Sr. Consuelo. No one should feel they cannot go because they haven't the $$$$$.

DANCE:

The committees are being formed; if you want to help, make sure you see Candace Jimmons and find out how you can help!

MASS:

Yes, every Wednesday at noon there is a special liturgy for Doheny students, faculty and staff. Why not celebrate this praying time at 12:05 during the Lenten season? Lent is a time of sacrifice and giving. Can you not give a half hour extra a week to the Lord? (Yes, you can come in late!)

FROM THE ASB OFFICE:

NEW OFFICE:

We are all settled into our quarters in Bldg. 7 and invite you to drop by and see us. Enter the front door of the building and then follow the signs through the hallway maze. Hours will be posted when Board Members will be present for your ideas, questions, concerns, etc.

(Cont.)

In addition, the sign-up lists which were started at the Cookout will be posted for those who missed adding their names. Get involved!

THANKS!

To all of you who attended our Sadie Hawkins-style Cookout last Thursday. It was a great chance to mix and mingle, and it won't stop there. We have plans to keep the semester hopping! Special thanks to the Food Service personnel who gave of their time and efforts to make our evening a success, in spite of weather!

GRADUATION COMMITTEE!

Believe it or not, the time is fast approaching for the end-of-the-year activities related to honoring the Class of '85. We are, therefore, in need of organizing some committees for the actual planning and implementation of the events. Some elements of the Graduation are located on the Doheny Campus, exclusively for the A.A. grads, while others are All-College related and include not only the A.A. grads, but also the Masters and Baccalaureate ones.

Information on the various components of graduation is posted in the hall of Bldg. 4. Also, applications are available there and in Bldg. 7 for those students interested in working on the committees. All students are eligible -- not just members of the Class of '85. We do need some first years to work on the celebration parts of the events.

Pick up an application today, fill it out and return it to Bldg. 7 by Friday, March 8. We need to get the ball rolling! Any questions may be directed to Sr. James Marien for the time being, and then to any member of the committees as they are organized. Your ideas are important! In addition, we ask now that all Graduates start becoming very aware of signs concerning the Commencement. You are responsible for all the things which need to be done! Watch carefully!

DEADLINE for signing up is MONDAY, MARCH 18.

NURSING APPLICATION FORMS:

 TRANSFER-TO-CHALON FORM. Don't wait until the Deadline.

Attention LVN's

If you wish to move directly into the RN program, you need to take the test for ADVANCED PLACEMENT. This test will be administered WEDNESDAY, MARCH 27, from 10:00 A.M. until 12:00 P.M. FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT SERVICES

Spring Fair '85

This is it! Tuesday and Wednesday, March 12 and 13, of this week are the days of the Fair. If the sun shines, it will be located on the patio of Bldg. 4. If it doesn't, we will move into the foyer of the Lecture Hall. Look for the crowds and listen for the noise between 11:30 A.M. and 1:00 P.M. both days.

The number of booths is increasing: Mexican food, a salad bar, churros, desserts, drinks, and other items to eat; also, a white elephant booth, Easter booth, palm reading/ card reading booth, raffles, etc. It should be a lot of fun so plan to be there -- bring a friend or two, and your wallet!

(Cont.)

Saint Paul On-Campus

On Wednesday, March 20, a one-man performance of ALL THINGS TO ALL MEN will be presented in Our Lady Chapel. Robert Macklin, a local actor, will bring St. Paul alive through story telling and story reenactment. The presentation is free to the Doheny Community and will begin at 11:00 A.M.

Plan to attend this "intense, upbeat play! A one-man drama with a 'cast of thousands'." It should be an enlightening and thoughtful experience for all.

Parking on Campus

Thanks to all of you for your patience in regards to parking. Sometimes when on-campus events are held, the spaces disappear all too quickly. Remember that extra parking is then available at the parking lot of St. Vincent's Church. It is better to use that lot than to park on the streets near campus. Be sure that you follow all the regulations of parking at Doheny -- decals, lines, reserved spots, etc.

April Fool's Blood Drive

Remember that Monday, April 1, is the Spring Blood Drive here at Doheny. We need to sign up 80 donors to keep with our goal for the drive. You are needed!

Also, some volunteers to help with sign-ups are needed now. If you are interested, and want to get involved, please drop by Office 4, Bldg. 7, for information. The more who help, the better!

Security

Remember, also, that security on campus is the responsibility of each of us. Be sure to report to the switchboard or the guards any strangers who seem out of place. Beginning on Tuesday, March 12, the Adams and 23rd St. gates will both be closed at 11:00 P.M. All entrances and exits after that will have to be through the gate on St. James. In addition, be sure that all carry their I.D. at all times so that the guards can ask for them. This is a precautionary measure and your cooperation will be appreciated. Report any problems or concerns to the Student Services Office in Bldg. 7.

FROM THE CAMPUS MINISTRY OFFICE

Thought for the Week

Lord, teach us to spend our lives as You did....healing and forgiving; help us to pull out the weeds in our hearts, which choke out your words of life; teach us to be grateful for the very gift of life in ourselves and others, in all that you have made. (Have I, during this lenten season, taken the time and made the effort to speak to the person who has hurt me? Have I apologized to the person whom I have hurt? Do I pray for those whom I do not particularly like? We are all children of the same heavenly Father. Let us never forget that!)

Salad Bar/Churros

Don't forget to drop by our table this Tuesday and Wednesday to enjoy some delicious salads and delectable 'churros'. Your campus ministry members will be selling these for your pleasure; of course, you will be helping us too! Thanks for your support!

St. Joseph's Day

March 19th is coming soon! Faculty, staff and students -- you are all invited to attend the special liturgical service at 12:00 P.M. followed by a reception. Please try to come and join in the celebration.

St. Pat's Leprechauns

Yes, they will be on campus this Friday night.....in fact, some of them are roaming on campus this week....to remind you that they want you to do some JAMMIN' from 9:00 P.M. to 2:00 A.M. in Donahue Lounge. Pick up your flyer for all the info'. The dance is being sponsored by both Campus Ministry and ASB Board to raise funds for the Food and Clothing Centers in mid-city and south central L.A. Won't you come and support our cause? Call up your friends and invite them all!!!

FROM THE ASB OFFICE

Board Members Re-Introduced

In case you missed the first announcement, and since a couple of new members have been added, we want to re-introduce the new ASB Board: Renee Bahner, Desiree Ertle, Dianna Fowler, Latarsha Garland, Cathy Gonzales, April Guray, Kelly McVicker, Imelda Navalta, Rose Newton, and Sheila Schleyer.

(Cont.)

Our group will be directly responsible for planning and carrying out activities this semester. These can include social, recreational, etc. We welcome your ideas and contributions. Drop by our office in Bldg. 7 -- just follow the signs to the ASB Office (#5).

Be sure to let us know what things you would like to see happening here at Doheny. You will be hearing more from us in the weeks ahead.

NEW ITEM FOR HAPPENINGS**

Dear Ruth,

My roommate and I haven't talked to each other for over a week. We get up in the morning at separate times and never say anything to each other. We never go to meals together like we used to. It seems that she has given up studying in the room, too. We haven't had a fight, and I can't tell if I said something wrong to upset her and cause this silence. What should I do?

SILENCE IS GOLDEN, BUT THIS IS RIDICULOUS!

Dear S.I.G.,

Since you and your roommate have not had a fight, please don't be so quick to blame yourself for the absence of communication. It may be nothing at all, really. The semester is new and your roommate may be feeling the pressures of the demands of new classes. She may not even notice that you two have not spoken to each other. One way of opening the lines of communication might be to leave a series of good morning notes on her desk where she will find them, Wish her a happy day. It's one way of letting her know that you are thinking about her and that you care.

Dear Ruth,

I am having difficulties in one of my classes, and I absolutely hate speaking up in class. It's early in the semester and I don't want to mess up from the start. How can I avoid a disastrous beginning and end?

SINKING FAST

Dear Sinking,

There are several ways that you can recover from your shaky start. First, you can try to see the instructor right after class either to ask for help then or to set up an appointment for a later time. Also, instructors keep office hours. Most instructors indicate what these office hours are on the syllabus. If the instructor has not done this, check to see if the Dean's secretary, Gretchen, has the information. If this does not work, leave the instructor a note in his or her mail in Bldg. 10, asking for an appointment. Be sure to leave your name, mailbox number, and/or telephone number so that the instructor can contact you. If you make an appointment, be sure to write it down to remind yourself. Nothing is worse than breaking an appointment by not showing up.

Another way to get help is to visit the Learning Resource Center in Bldg. 4. In addition to the Sisters, who are most helpful, there are a variety of tapes and audio-visual presentations to assist the student. Give it a try. I don't think that you will be disappointed.

DEAR RUTH is a weekly DOHENY HAPPENINGS column answering questions common to all students, resident and commuter. If you have a situation that needs constructive suggestions, or want to know how best to go about a certain task, simply submit your written question in a sealed envelope to the DEAR RUTH box in the Admissions Office.

NEWS

From

Senator William Campbell

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Senator William Campbell is pleased to announce that the 1985 Conference on Women will be held Wednesday, May 8 at the Anaheim Hilton and Towers Hotel in Anaheim, California.

"The overwhelming response to my previous Conferences clearly demonstrates to me that the format and topics we present are of significance to women and our program is extremely well received," Senator Campbell said.

Anticipating an attendance of 4,000, we have expanded our program offering more than 60 seminars and featuring such notable speakers as Sally Ride, NASA Astronaut and first woman in space; Dr. Irene C. Kassorla, psychologist, media personality and author of "Go For It"; and Reverend Terry Cole-Whittaker of San Diego.

Susan Newman will speak on the subject of alcohol abuse. Ms. Newman is Director of Special Projects for The Scott Newman Center, which was developed by her father, Paul Newman, after the tragic death of his son Scott. Additionally, popular quarterback for the Los Angeles Rams, Jeff Kemp and his wife Stacy, will appear on a panel entitled, "So, Who Takes the Garbage Out Now?." Joining them will be 150 speakers with expertise in particular areas of interest including career advancement, re-entry, and self-development for women at home, in the community and for potential and existing women business owners.

A new facet of the 1985 Conference is the co-sponsorship by the United States Small Business Administration adding many exciting opportunities. The Trade Fair which offers day-long personalized counseling is a popular feature with numerous new exhibitors this year.

The cost of this all-day Conference is only $25.00 which includes morning coffee, luncheon, parking and all seminars. For further information, you may call my district offices at 714-770-5533 or 818-964-1443.

"This Conference is structured to be highly motivational and offers a wide variety of subjects of interest to today's woman," Senator Campbell said. "I look forward to another successful event on Wednesday, May 8, 1985."

FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT SERVICES

Thank You! Thank You!

Our 1985 Spring Fair was a tremendous success -- even the weather cooperated! Special thanks to all those who offered a booth: Sister Aline Marie, Sister Joseph Adele, Victoria Romero, Phi Gamma Nu, ASB, Sister Connie and the Campus Ministry Team, Agatha Lambey, Delia Estrada, Sylvia Miller, April Guray, Cathy Gonzalez, and Imelda Navalta. The food was delicious! The sale items were real bargains!

Thanks also to those of you who came and supported our two day venture! You are the reasons for the success. Start thinking now about booths for '86. Let's make it even bigger next time!

Saint Paul is Coming

This Wednesday, March 20, at 11:00 A.M., we will present Mr. Robert Macklin in his one-man performance, ALL THINGS TO ALL MEN. This play, to be put on in Our Lady of Mercy Chapel, centers on the life and times of St. Paul, the Apostle to the Gentiles.

Many of you have had, or are presently taking, a course on the New Testament, where Paul is a central figure. This is your chance to see him come to life in an "intense, upbeat play!" And what's more, it is free! All are invited!

Blood Drive Helpers Needed

The time is drawing near for the Spring Blood Drive at Doheny. As you are all aware, there is a constant need for blood donors in our city, and this is your chance to help.

However, before the actual event, scheduled for Monday, April 1, from 9:30 A.M. to 2:30 P.M. in Donohue Hall, we need some people to serve as recruiters -- people who will try to get others to sign up for appointments prior to the drive.

Can you help? You do not have to be a donor yourself. We just need this assistance. For the first six who volunteer, we have Red Cross T-shirts. Please drop by Office 4 of Bldg. 7 today and get your information.

The sign up list for actual appointments is posted on the door of the above office. Come by and sign up whenever you have the chance in case a recruiter does not find you. We are trying to sign up 80 donors with the hope that we can top our record of last Spring. Be a part of it! Give a piece of life so that others may live!

Easter Gifts

Need something to tuck into that Easter basket for a special someone on April 7 (Easter Sunday!) or to give as a gift to someone dear? If so, do I have a deal for you!

Some of the items we sold at the Spring Fair -- Hug-a-Bunnies, Lovable Animals, Easter Peepers -- are still available. Even a few Love Buds are left. If you want one (or more), drop by Office 4, Bldg. 7 between now and the start of vacation. Prices vary from $1.50 to $3.00 -- bargains galore!

Thought for the Week

A

Turning Point
In Our Lives -
How about this Lent?

Often we are blind to our sins until life calls on us to pay the consequences. We cause people pain with our selfish behavior until we ourselves begin to hurt! Then are we going to reach our turning point? We know we can always ask for forgiveness from God and we will get it. Are we willing to forgive others? Are we willing to accept our sins and stop hiding from the reality of our need to hand our sin over to the Lord? To begin anew..... to stop 'play-acting'.....this will be our lives-- to become in some way, new?

Lord Jesus, let me stop ignoring your word. Please open my heart as well as my ears that I may truly listen to God's word. Even when I feel trapped in my sinfulness, may I never forget that You are always present in my life. Help me to believe in You and trust in You and in this way become more reflective, peaceful and prayerful. With this strength I will be able to change and become a better person. Amen.

If you know the person's extension dial 8 and the extension number. NEVER USE THE 476 NUMBER UNLESS THE TIE LINES ARE DOWN.

At times we get so involved with ourselves that we forget how much others might need us. Next Monday, April 1, is one of those days when perhaps we can think of others and give a bit of ourselves for them. It is the day of the Annual Spring Blood Drive, sponsored by the Red Cross. The times are between 9:30 and 2:30, and the location is Donohue Hall. Recruiters are now on campus or you can sign up for an appointment in Bldg. #7. Do something for someone else -- and also for yourself! You will feel better when you GIVE!

Thought for the Week

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Responding from the Heart: Many of us spend our lives hardening our shells rather than breaking them open. We opt for security and routine rather than risk and growth.

The joys and sorrows that come our way are really invitations to life. But often we view them as threats and retreat from them in fear. We hide within our shells, settle deeper into our ruts -- and brood because something seems to be missing from our lives.

God never tires of patiently coaxing us to leave our shells behind -- assuring us that the love of our Divine Helper is all the protection we need. But only when we believe that word and open ourselves to God's action will new life happen for us.

Thanks to All

Campus Ministry would like to Thank You for joining in the fun. We hope that each of you enjoyed yourself. Thanks for the support you gave. We do not know when another dance will happen, but we will let you know as soon as possible.

Campus Ministry will be having a BAKE SALE on Tuesday, March 26. We welcome your help and support in this event also. Contact: Sr. Consuelo or Candace Jimmons at Ext. 2128/ Bldg. #7.

Dearly beloved, in Holy Week, when the most bitter sufferings of Jesus Christ are put before us by the liturgy, the Church invites us to come to Calvary and follow in the footsteps of the divine Redeemer, to carry the Cross willingly with Him, and to reproduce in our hearts his spirit of expiation and atonement. We ought to glory in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ in whom is our salvation, life and resurrection. (Words taken from Pope Pius XII "On the Sacred Liturgy")

Let us pray together with the entire Christian World during this time, that we may have the courage and grace to preserve faithfully the lessons Jesus has given us in his Passion, so we can all share in his Resurrection of Joy.

ATTEND THE HOLY WEEK SERVICES IN YOUR CHURCHES!

A gift from you at Easter

This week we are sending a box of canned goods (received at the St. Patrick's Dance) and $100 to Bethlehem Center on Alvarado St. This Food and Clothing Distribution Center helps hundreds of needy people weekly. THANK YOU AGAIN FOR SUPPORTING THE DANCE!

DRABBLE By Kevin Fagan

LUANN By Greg Evans

Dear Ruth,

My boyfriend is pressuring me to spend more time with him. He says that he wants to get to know me better. He also says that he enjoys spending time with me. I really like this guy except for one small thing: When we are together, he almost always takes me to visit his friends. His friends are all dopers, and all they do is sit around and get high. I get bored, and really worry about my boyfriend turning into a doper. I have tried to explain to my boyfriend that I must give a large portion of my time to my studies. As a business major, I have a lot of hard classes and I really need to study so that I can be a success. I hope to open my own travel agency someday. So, Ruth, what do I tell my boyfriend? Should I spend time with him or should I spend time with my studies?

Confused in L.A.

Dear Confused,

Yours is a rather difficult situation, but not hopeless. You have identified what you perceive to be problems in your relationship with your boyfriend. You like your boyfriend and do not want to drop the friendship, but he is not being mindful of your interests, needs, and values. Remember, you are here at Mount St. Mary's to be a student first and foremost. If your boyfriend is making demands for unreasonable amounts of your time, you have a responsibility to yourself to be assertive and let him know that your studies are a priority to you.

You have also identified that your boyfriend quite frequently takes you to see his friends and that they sit around taking drugs of some sort. It sounds like there is a difference in values between you and your boyfriend. It is a sensitive subject, but perhaps you need to let him know how you feel about his drug use. Also, if he makes the decision about where you go for your dates, and this is frequently unsatisfactory to you, turn the tables. Ask him out for a date. That way you can call the shots and he can see the type of activities that you enjoy. Your boyfriend needs to be more aware of what is important to you. This goes beyond telling him that you need more time for studying. Good luck.

Dear Ruth,

My work study job is such a drag. All I do is answer the phone and take messages. I would like to be learning more about the work world and the types of opportunities available to a Liberal Arts major. I want to learn more about the skills I ought to be developing. Where can I go and who can I talk to about finding more information regarding the types of jobs that I would be best suited for? Also, is there a way that I can add some interesting tasks to my current job? I really would like to be doing more.

Workaholic

Dear Workie,

While your work study job may be a drag, don't knock it. It is an important part of your financial aid package. Granted, answering the telephone and taking messages may not be the most exciting task, but it is a necessary function for the college. While you are whittling away those weary hours at your work station, do some fun reading. Pick up a Time magazine, or the L.A. Times. Make up some flash cards for one of your classes. If you are interested in learning more about the employment opportunities available to people with degrees in Liberal Arts, make an appointment to see Dr. Keeler in the Career Center in Building 7. Make an appointment through Margie McTeer in Building 10 to spend some time on the Discover Program in the Computer Center. The Discover Program is a helpful tool for assessing your goals, values, and interests, and will offer suggestions as possible career directions.

Send your "Dear Ruth" questions to Building 10, Admissions Office.

The secretary: After generations, still the linchpin of business.

Secretaries Are Gaining Status as Demand for Them Increases

By ELIZABETH MEHREN,
Times Staff Writer

NEW YORK—The first thing they would like to do is expunge the term just, as in "just a secretary."

Next, champions of this field would like to train every executive in the universe not to refer to his secretary as "my girl."

Finally, they would like to reaffirm the oft-repeated truism that if every chief executive officer in the United States took a day off, business would continue as usual. But if every secretary stayed home, business would screech to a standstill.

Certainly technology is all but on the verge of rendering the steno pad a Pleistocene relic. The field is changing, evolving with every new office microchip. Still, said Eleanor Vreeland, head of one of the country's oldest continuous secretarial schools, "if we had enough time to talk about all the name changes we have discussed, at the end of the day, secretary is still the word that best describes the job, just as executive best describes that particular position."

As president and chief executive officer of the Katharine Gibbs School Inc., Vreeland scheduled a luncheon not long ago to discuss changes in one of the fastest-growing professions in the country. One thing that Vreeland, a former secretary at the now-defunct ladies' clothing firm of Peck & Peck, wanted to point out was how her field was emerging from its battle with the women's movement, how "we are still coming out of the age when people thought of secretarial work as demeaning."

One entire generation may have said why be a nurse when you can be a brain surgeon, why be a legal secretary when you can be a lawyer, but "high school graduates now," Vreeland said, "are just not into that whole thing we were into as recently as five years ago, when people were saying secretarial work was demeaning. High school students today hear that and they don't know what we're talking about."

Vreeland may have been eager to bolster her contention that secretaries are no longer suffering from a bad rep, that "I think what has happened is that the secretary's role has been accepted as very important," but she also was interested in tendering some impressive statistics. Figures from the U.S. Department of Labor, she reported, show "80,000 secretarial spots going unfilled yearly." The same Department of Labor predicts that in the next five years the field will burgeon, she said, by "500,000 new secretarial jobs over and above what there are today."

In Los Angeles County in 1984, secretaries occupied 178,368 positions. Projections for 1985 showed the figure growing to 185,775.

Industry is growing "more and more into service and research organizations," she said, resulting in a rapidly expanding demand for workers with clerical skills. "There just aren't enough secretaries," Vreeland said. "It's as simple as that."

Those who do step into these vacant secretarial slots will find that an increasingly technological office place—"it takes a genius just to operate the new telephones," Vreeland joked—is also a more financially satisfying work environment.

Higher Starting Salaries

"In the last three years," she said, "there has been a 20% increase for beginning-level secretaries." In New York last year this meant entry-level secretarial salaries ranging from $15,000 to $17,000, and "we think they're going to go even higher."

As secretary to a chief executive officer, moreover, Vreeland said, "you can expect to command salaries of $35,000 to $40,000—and more."

(Average secretarial wages in Los Angeles County for 1984 were $6.73 per hour.)

Money may pay the VISA bills, but it isn't the only payoff, Vreeland said: "The secretary to the chairman of the board, that is a very powerful position."

Indeed, she went on, in spite of competition from a bumper crop of ambitious young MBAs, it is not merely a wild pipe dream for a secretary to contemplate climbing the corporate ladder. Former secretary Mary Jarratt, for example, is now Ronald Reagan's assistant secretary of agriculture for food and consumer services, and another one-time secretary who rose to rather meteoric heights was a man named Lyndon Johnson, later the 36th President of the United States.

'Still 98% Female'

Lyndon Johnson notwithstanding, the fact, Vreeland said, is that "the field is still 98% female," perhaps because for many years, as late, certainly as the 1950s, "women had fewer job opportunities and career paths available to them."

A secretary was defined originally as the "keeper of the secrets," Vreeland said, and ironically, "the field started out however many hundreds of years ago as a job for men."

But maybe the white gloves that Katharine Gibbs' graduates were once required to wear helped drive men away from the field. A strict dress code prevails, Vreeland said: "If they come to school not dressed the way they should be dressed for work in an office, we send them home." Improper attire might include something like "net stockings, because they simply are not accepted in the business world today."

If image is essential to the upgraded image of the secretary, Vreeland said, so is education, "the re-education of both the executive and the secretary." Regardless of who makes the coffee, or who fetches it, "the relationship between an executive and a secretary who work together for many years is also one that becomes a friend, a partner. We think educating corporate America of the value of a secretary is the way to go."

MORE FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT SERVICES

THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

To all those who participated in the Blood Drive on April 1 -- to those who donated, to those who tried to give blood, and especially to Silvia Raigosa who single-handedly signed up a record 20 volunteers!

(A word to some others! Just a little reminder that when you sign up for something -- be it the Blood Drive, a Delta assignment, etc. -- you should come! OR, be courteous enough to call or drop by and tell someone you cannot make it. As a case in point, we ONLY had 28 appointments for the Drive, and of those, EIGHT DID NOT EVEN SHOW! Luckily 24 other people dropped in and gave on the spot! When people depend on you, you can at least try to be dependable!)

FROM THE CAMPUS MINISTRY OFFICE

THOUGH FOR THE WEEK

Jesus, you are alive! Your rose from the dead, filled with light, a light which death -- the evil one, our wrong doing, our mistakes, and all illness and darkness in the world cannot overcome. Touch us, Jesus, and turn us, too, into Easter People -- make us an alleluia people!

As I finish out my year of studies, may the Power and Peace that comes from your teaching and healing, speak to me, Lord! May I not let the opportunities for service and acts of kindness pass by as I live my daily, routine life. I will say yes to the love within me, and I will gift others with my kind word, my smile and helping hand.

LUANN By Greg Evans

"DEAR RUTH"

Dear Ruth,

One of my teachers is constantly on my case. She always calls on me in class. When she sees me across campus she comes over and asks me if I've been studying. She says that I have great potential, but that I am lazy. Can you believe that? She even asks me what I do with my time. I have told her that it is none of her business, and that as long as I go to class and do my homework I will pass the class. I really don't like this teacher because I think she is too nosy. I want her off my case. She teaches a class that I really need. What can I do short of dropping the class or not showing up?

signed "Off my case", please!

Dear O.M.C.P.,

Sometimes, it's rather difficult avoiding those people whom we find unpleasant, especially in such close, intimate surroundings as the Doheny campus. The key here is to know when and how to be assertive. Assertiveness is vastly different than aggressiveness and nurtures a different, less defensive response from the other person. Aggressively telling a teacher or anyone else that something "is none of her business" may indeed get your point across to her, but may also foster an aggressive and possibly punitive response. An assertive and more useful response would be to explain that you are aware of the importance of budgeting your time wisely, and that you have done so.

Some of your teacher's badgering may seem burdensome and nosy to you. Rather than resisting all of what she has to say to you, why not "hit the ball back into her court"? Ask her what she thinks you might be able to do to develop some of that potential she sees in you. You may learn something and she may begin to respect you more.

Dear Ruth,

I have a mad crush on one of my teachers. He is really interesting as a teacher and he really cares about the students and the quality of their work. The problem? I want to get to know him better. I would like to invite him over to my house for dinner and to talk. All of my friends are teasing me and saying that I should find someone my own age. No one seems to understand what this teacher means to me. What can I do?

signed, "Crazy over him"

Dear Crazy,

In spite of how your friends tease you, your feelings are probably very real and need to be dealt with. The dilemma is how to deal with them well. You write that no one seems to understand what the teacher means to you. Can you sit down and list for yourself what he means to you? And, of this list, how many of these things come exclusively from your classroom contact with him? An instructor's professional self in the classroom can sometimes be very different than the casual self that is not at work.

This brings us to the question of inviting an instructor to your house for dinner. I assume that, since your friends are teasing you, the instructor is not married. Ask yourself, if he was married and just as interesting and caring about the students, would you still ask him and his wife over for dinner? While there are no absolute answers, you would be better advised not to ask him to your house while you are a student at the College or while he is an instructor at the College. Professionalism, prudence and proper discretion would dictate this to both you and your instructor. Too many negative consequences could result.

If you are still interested in getting to know your instructor, utilize his office hours. It is perfectly legitimate. Besides, most instructors are overjoyed when students stop in to talk to them.

: Send your "Dear Ruth" questions to Dear Ruth, c/o Doheny Admissions Office, #10.

Thought for the Week

How can I help those less fortunate than I, Lord! Let me be open to new visions, new insights and new promptings that will make me realize that I can BE for others. Let me not say, "I have no time"; I can always make time for what I want to do for myself. Lord, make me a little less selfish! Maybe I can be just a good listener, a good supporter, BUT JUST maybe I can also BE A DOER! Help me Lord!

SIENA DAY

S.A.F.E.

This Wednesday you all know we are hosting Siena Day on the Doheny Campus. Hope to see you all there. Our noon soup meal will serve as a means to send money to fight famine in Africa. How? We are joining all the college students throughout the U.S.A. to send a donation (money donated from our lunch on SIENA DAY) to an organization serving the hungry in Africa. So PLEASE, RESIDENTS AND COMMUTERS, remember to give either a money donation (if you don't have soup) or to know that when you are enjoying it, you are helping someone else.

Walk for Hunger

On May 2 - Friday - the Campus Ministry at Doheny will be sponsoring a Walk For Hunger. Get the particulars on Siena Day or from the Campus Ministry Office. ANNOUNCEMENT:

The American Bishops are gathering information from the grass roots for their pastoral letter on Women in Church and Society. The process in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles has begun. It is hoped that Catholic adult men and women (especially) of all ages, ethnic groups, and economic levels will participate in providing input at the May listening sessions. The listening sessions will address these major questions: How is woman appreciated or oppressed in the Church and in Society? What can be done to achieve reconciliation and end the alienation of women in the Church and in Society? What issues should the Bishops address in their Pastoral Letter?

Mount St. Mary's will host a general listening session Wednesday evening, May 8, from 7 to 10 P.M. on the Doheny Campus. Anyone who would like to attend this session rather than with a parish or other group is urged to take part. All students, faculty, staff, and administration, as well as friends and relatives, are invited. Four general sessions will be held in other regions of Los Angeles, Ventura, and Santa Barbara counties.

If you wish to hold your own listening session for a group of 8-10, you may do so. If you wish to facilitate your own group, you may call in for a packet of information from the Peace and Justice Office, (213)620-1448.

Catholic men and women, whether currently active Catholics or not, are strongly urged by Cardinal Manning to respond to the Bishops' request for input.

Catherine of Siena

Catherine of Siena lived deeply and fully in a time not unlike our own. She engaged in issues with the fearlessness and candor of intelligence and deep commitment to God.

We know a good deal of this woman through a brilliant series of letters aimed to guide and even reprimand leaders of her 14 century Siena and Italy. She lived as a vital, influential woman - and she died a saint.

Our "Siena Day" each spring is intended to highlight the importance of developing and using one's potential for one's own time - but in a way that contributes positively to many - and to all time.

FROM THE GRADUATION COMMITTEE

Dear Graduates,

This is the final request we are going to make on the subject, but if you wish your graduation to be a real celebration, you are going to have to help us by HANDING THINGS IN ON TIME! Several of you were a week late with the first forms, and others of you have still not handed in the packets. The chairs have been ordered and the food too; if you have not let us know, we cannot assure you of chairs for your family. IF you hand things in IMMEDIATELY, we can still alter the names in the program to be sure you are included. After this, just keep your eyes on the bulletin board for GRADUATES and help us out. BE ON TIME!

Gratefully,

The Graduation Committee

FROM THE RESIDENCE DIRECTOR

ROOM DEPOSITS:

This is just a reminder that those of you wishing to reserve a room for next year should be paying the $75. as soon as possible. The forms for room choices have not been distributed yet, but they will be out soon. Keep your eyes open.

RESIDENCE INTERVIEWS:

Current Resident students are reminded that letters requesting interviews will be coming your way soon. When yours arrives, be sure to sign up for an appointment in Bldg. 7 within the week. It will help to speed the process and assure that all are involved.

FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT SERVICES

Are you leaving Doheny?

It is now that time of year when people start finalizing plans for next Fall. Registration is just around the corner, room reservations are due, and those of you leaving Doheny either through Graduation, transferring or setting out on "new adventures", have one more task to fulfill. It will only take a few minutes of your time, but it will be extremely useful for Doheny. Please drop by Bldg. 7, when you have a few minutes, to pick up a form called an "Exit Interview" -- the name is far more imposing than the form! It just contains some questions related to data on your time at Doheny, things you valued, and those you wish to change. The future at our Campus can be made a bit easier with the responses you give. Please help us by coming in as soon as possible -- only a few minutes are needed. The main intent is to reach those transferring or leaving college altogether, but we would like to know what you Graduates plan, too! Thanks in advance!

Parking Problem!

We are having a couple of problems related to the parking habits of some students, staff and faculty. Please heed the rules! There are very few reserved spots on campus. However, we have those for a reason, and it would be greatly appreciated if you would stay out of those places.

In addition, we are losing spaces daily because some of you do not take the extra seconds to park STRAIGHT and IN BETWEEN THE LINES! Please be considerate of others and abide by these two rules -- for the good of us all!

FROM THE CAMPUS MINISTRY OFFICE

Thought for the Week

Friendship is the golden thread that ties the hearts of all the world. (J. Evelyn)

You must give some time to your fellowman. Even if it's a little thing, do something for those who have need of a man's help, something for which you get no pay but the privilege of doing it. For remember, you don't live in a world all your own. YOUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS ARE HERE, TOO.

Albert Schweitzer

A very special THANK YOU TO JACKIE, CAROLYN AND CECILIA for accepting the invitation to be on the panel. THE DEADLINE FOR THE NEXT ISSUE IS WEDNESDAY, MAY 1, at 2:00 P.M.

DEAR RUTH

Dear Readers,

Most of the letters this week have been from concerned students who are questioning how they can recover from the mid-semester blues because of the failure notices that they have received. Rather than address a few specific letters, I thought it might be more helpful for everyone if this week's column dealt generally with how to be more effective time-managers in our day-to-day lives. You might prefer to be consoled in your sorrow, but that might not be the best response. For those of you who have received failure notices, the task at hand now is to take responsibility for your situation and to do something positive and mature now. Even for those students who have not received mid-semester failure notices, using good time-management habits may prove to be fruitful for you, too.

The first thing to realize is that the quantity, or the amount that you study each night will not necessarily guarantee that you will study in a quality manner. For instance, if you spend five hours every night in front of the television with "the books", chances are you are wasting five good hours. Where you study is important. Move to a place where you will be comfortable: The library, the learning resource center, Donahue lounge, or even your bedroom. If you know that you do not study well in absolute silence, go ahead and turn on the radio, but do not blast it. If you find yourself "rocking to the sounds", the radio is probably too loud. If you don't choose a good place to study, you will only set yourself up for failure.

We have been told by the Book of Ecclesiastes that there is a time for everything. This is true when you decide what needs to be studied, too. Make a list of the class notes, and the textbook chapters that you have to review and read. On the list be sure to include the homework assignments you must do, appointments you must keep, and the errands that you must run. After you have listed everything that you have to do, prioritize the items. If you have a homework assignment that is due at 8:30 in the morning, you might consider putting that near the top of your list. Complete each of the tasks in the order in which you have prioritized them. If, day after day, you are finding that the classes you find most difficult to study for are at the bottom of your list, challenge yourself to study it earlier in the day. Make it a higher priority on your list.

The time of day that you choose to start your studying can make a difference in the fruitfulness of your efforts, too. If your tendency is to study late at night, and you have gotten a failure notice (or come close to one), try studying earlier in the day. (Our brains work best after they have had ample rest.) Aside from being tired in the evening and needing to relax, your friends like to socialize... with you! If you are like most of your friends, you like to socialize with them.... in the evening! What this adds up to is that the distractions in the evening are many. If you can be honest with yourself and admit that perhaps you are not as well-disciplined as you ought to be, study earlier in the day.

Getting a failure notice in a class is not mean that you the student must fail a class, unless, of course, you do nothing about it. Part of dealing with the deficiency notice maturely involves communicating with your instructor, and even your advisor. It is you who has the responsibility to seek assistance, but do it. In your attempt to regain your footing in your difficult classes, seek assistance in the learning resource center. Organize a study group with some of the students in your class. Studying with other students can be helpful. It allows you the opportunity to hear the same material put in a different way. It also allows you the opportunity to clarify what you think you understand. Please, do not let a student study group take the place of the need to ask the instructor questions you have about the material.

Good luck to you all as you continue in these last weeks of the semester.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

During the month of May let us often call upon Mary, the Mother of Jesus, to be our guide and model. From Luke 1, let us pray:

My souls proclaims the greatness of the Lord;
My spirit rejoices in God my savior,
for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant.
From this day all generations will call me blessed.

The Almighty has done great things for me.
Holy is His name.
He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation.
...He has cast down the mighty from their thrones and has lifted up the lowly.
He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich
he has sent empty away...

"DEAR RUTH"

Dear Ruth,

While taking a test recently, I noticed the girl sitting in front of me was trying to copy the answers from the girl next to her. This has upset me greatly. I know both the girls personally and I haven't said anything. I am very upset and don't know how to approach the subject. Two weeks later, when we got out tests back, I found out that both girls had scored relatively high. HELP! Ruth, I need some advice!

signed "Cheaters don't win, or do they?"

Dear CDWDT,

It is never right for anyone to copy the answers from another's homework, papers or tests. This amounts to cheating, stealing and dishonesty. If the girl who was being copied from willingly allowed the answers to be copied, she is just as guilty. When you see something so flagrantly wrong happening, you have a responsibility to speak up about it. There are two responses that immediately come to mind.

- 1). After the exam, the same day or the very next day, approach the instructor either in person or by way of a note. Let your instructor know what you saw and who was involved. If you are concerned about your friends finding out that it was you who informed the instructor of their misdeeds, explain this fear to the instructor, or simply don't sign the note. If it not necessarily important that the instructor know who you are. The larger issue is to bring to her/his attention that the students are cheating.
- 2). In casual conversation with you friends, bring up the topic of cheating. You can bring to their attention your feelings about it without actually accusing them. Hear them out about their attitudes towards it too. Thw forum you have with them casually may do more good than aggressively telling them not to cheat!

Dear Ruth,

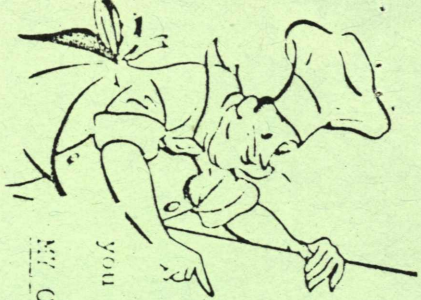

I am having trouble staying awake in class. Is there any way the classes could begin later in the day, giving those of us who need more sleep a chance to get it? Those fraternity parties don't end until 2 or 3 a.m. By the time I get back to the dorm and get to sleep, it is 4 or 5 a.m. Is there a way that perhaps the Administration could allow the morning classes to begin at noon, giving us a chance to engage in social activities as well as academics? There are several of us who are interested in afternoon and early evening classes. Should we talk to the Registrar or our Advisor about this?

signed "Party Hearty and Study, too!"

Dear Party,

You have pinpointed your own problem. It is not that you need more sleep but rather the hours that you choose to sleep. As you have probably already discovered, college is serious business. Most "serious" business days begin in the early morning, not at noon.

Your social life is indeed an important part of who you are. We all need to play. Just because it is important does not mean that it should be placed first on your priority list, or get the largest chunk of your time. If you find that, day after day, you are having difficulties waking up in time for class, perhaps you need to re-evaluate what is important to you. Of non-serious business, take all things in moderation, including parties. To answer your question, go talk to your Advisor. She has probably been wanting to see you for a long time!

FROM THE CAMPUS MINISTRY OFFICE

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

On this shrunken globe, men can no longer live as strangers...Our prayer is that men everywhere will learn, finally, to live as brothers and sisters, to respect each other's differences, to heal each other's wounds, to promote each other's progress, and to benefit from each other's knowledge. (Adlai Stevenson)

And so, this is what Doheny is trying to do. We as a campus family have been aware of our "neighbor" in the inner city and across the border in Tijuana; now we want to share with our hungry neighbors in Africa.

WALK-A-THON (May 15 - We welcome watchers, too!)

ARE YOU GOING TO COME TO LANTERMAN THIS WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON? PICK UP A FORM IN Bldg. 4 or 7, GET YOUR FRIENDS TO SPONSOR YOU (get the names and addresses filled out), and DO SOME WALKING THIS WEDNESDAY. WHAT EASIER WAY TO GET PEOPLE TO SHARE THAN JUST DO A "FEW" LAPS AROUND A FIELD!

YOU DON'T NEED TO WALK FOR TWO HOURS! The walk-a-thon will be held between 3:30 and 5:30. If you come late or at the beginning and leave early, that is all right. It is also O.K. if you walk the whole TWO HOURS!

(MORE ON THE WALK-A-THON)

. No, we don't have any special shirts or "gimmicks" to entice you-- only your good-will and generous giving of time and effort. (Of course, we'll have refreshments to keep you going.)

Invite your friends to come too; get them to sponsor you.

BE A SPONSOR IF YOU CAN'T COME TO THE WALK-A-THON!

LET'S ALL SAY WE WERE A PART OF "WE ARE THE WORLD"--"WE ARE THE CHILDREN".

Some instructions and clarification:

- 1). Bring your sign-up sheet to the field and hand it in to one of the "lap-counters" (Sister James, Sister Consuelo: they will have badges). THIS IS VERY IMPORTANT.
- 2). The sheet will be returned to you when you are finished--signed by a lap counter.
- 3). It will be your responsibility to see that the money is collected within ten days. We will have a small card or note paper expressing our thanks, which you can give to your sponsor when collecting the amount he/she promised.

REMEMBER: WHETHER YOU HAVE TWO OR TEN SPONSORS, FIVE OR TWENTY, EVERY $ COUNTS--IT MULTIPLIES!

ASCENSION THURSDAY (Holy Day will be celebrated on WEDNESDAY EVENING, 7 P.M.)

Because this is a Holy Day of Obligation, we will be having a special liturgy Wednesday evening at 7:00 P.M. Let us make it a time of thanksgiving for our generous "walkers" and "sponsors" and not just for the walk-a-thon but for all who have supported our "giving efforts throughout the year!

SOCIAL ACTION CLASS

We will meet this TUESDAY, in ROOM 207. Don't forget! MAY 14, 12-1.

AND NOW, "Trivial Happenings" ...

Did you know that Doheny Happenings is almost 14 years old? The first issue was November 14, 1971. All articles for publication were submitted to Linda in Dr. Eugene Petrik's office, then the Vice-President of the College. The main purpose of the Happenings was to (and still is) facilitate communication campus-wide. On May 13, 1973, the Editorial Offices were moved to #7 at Doheny, and Janet Hamada became the Editor. (This is mentioned in Volume 2, issue #31). On October 1, 1973 (with Volume 3, issue #1), Sister Dorothy Mary became Editor-in-Chief. Volume 1 had 25 issues. Volume 2 had 33 issues, and Volume 3 had 27 issues:

"DEAR RUTH"

Dear Ruth,

I am really concerned about my roommate. She has been really moody lately and is constantly irritable. Last night, I accidentally knocked over her laundry basket, which was in the middle of the floor, and a half empty bottle of vodka fell out. I am worried that my roommate has a drinking problem. I really love her and want to help her, but I don't know where to begin. Any ideas?

signed " Concerned"

Dear Concerned,

It seems that you have stumbled on to a sensitive problem, and at the same time a potentially dangerous situation. Before outlining suggestions as to what actions you can take, it may be helpful to enumerate why your roommate's problems are so dangerous.

1). There is no naievity here. Most college students, at one time or another, have consumed alcoholic beverages. It is when we look at the circumstances surrounding "the party" that we must be concerned. Your roommate is partying alone. This is not good, but I am not suggesting that you join her.

2). Your roommate probably thinks that she has successfully concealed her drinking from you. Since no one else knows, or so she thinks, she does not have to deal with the problem herself.

3). Your roommate, if she is drinking alone, is probably experiencing a lot of stress and pressure. Her drinking vodka may help her to relax but it does take care of alleviating the sources of her stress and pressures. Her drinking is not putting a bandaid on her hurts, but is only causing the wound to get bigger.

4). Whether drinking alone or with someone else from time to time, the probability is very great that your roommate is experiencing tremendous academic difficulty. Is she not getting up for her morning classes? Does she take an extraordinary amount of afternoon naps?

5). You mentioned that you care a great deal for your roommate. Have you noticed that she is avoiding you? In her pain, your roommate is looking for comfort in alcohol rather than looking for her friends who love her. That can kill relationships and spread the pain.

It is a difficult situation when faced with confronting a person who is drinking. I sense that you are concerned that if you tell someone who is in a position to take action, that your roommate will be in trouble. Well, look at the situation: your roommate is already in trouble.

Alcoholism is a disease. Given the circumstances of your roommate's drinking, the chances are very great that she is an alcoholic, that she has an illness. People who are ill do not receive punishment when they seek help and treatment. I am confident that those whom I am going to suggest to you will be very compassionate, non-judgemental, and wanting to do what is best for your roommate.

Talk to the Director of Residence, Sister James Marien. While Sister may not be able to directly help your roommate, she is in a very good position to make referrals that will be helpful.

Talk to your roommate's advisor, letting her/him know what's happening. The advisor, then, can approach your roommate to offer assistance or referrals.

Talk to your roommate and let her know what you found. Wait for her response, and do not accuse her of anything. As her peer and roommate, you are not in a position to do anything positive by accusing her. If she denies it, you have greater reason to see Sister James Marien or your roommate's advisor. Even if she does not deny her drinking problem, assistance from someone in charge is necessary. It's all a matter of who you decide to talk to first.

Because of the sensitivity of the situation, talking to your other friends about the problem may only make matters worse. If you care about your roommate, as you say you do, prevent the spread of rumors and gossip by NOT telling your friends.

Good luck to you. You are to be admired and respected for your courage to recognize your roommate's problem and your desire to help her.

FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT SERVICES

GRADUATES!

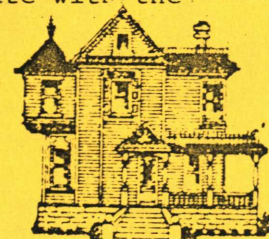

Please keep aware of the bulletin board during these last two weeks. Several announcements will be made concerning last minute details of the festivities of June 1 and 2. You should be receiving a packet of information this week. If you do not, please come to Bldg. 7 for one. It is imperative that you know what is happening -- and it is your responsibility too!

LUAU!!

All students, faculty, staff and administrators are reminded of the upcoming LUAU this Wednesday, May 22. Please plan to attend and participate in the fun evening. A lot of planning has gone into the celebration, and it will only be fun if lots of people join in. The Food Service will be closed that night as the whole dinner is at the pool area. Come! Celebrate with the Class of '85!

FROM THE DIRECTOR OF RESIDENCE

COMMUTERS!

Several commuters have asked if arrangements might be made for them to spend a night during finals week. We are willing to do this as a trial during the coming exam week.

Anyone interested should come to Bldg. 7 this week to make arrangements. A sleeping bag will be required as we cannot provide bedding. We will take care of as many as we can, but space might be limited.

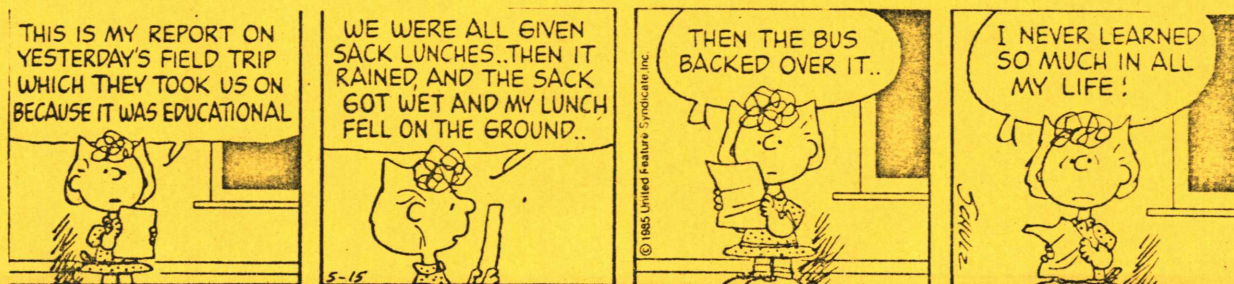

This will only include the following nights: Thursday, May 23; Monday, May 27 through Wednesday, May 29. (The long weekend will not be included, nor the night after finals as the residents must be moving out.)

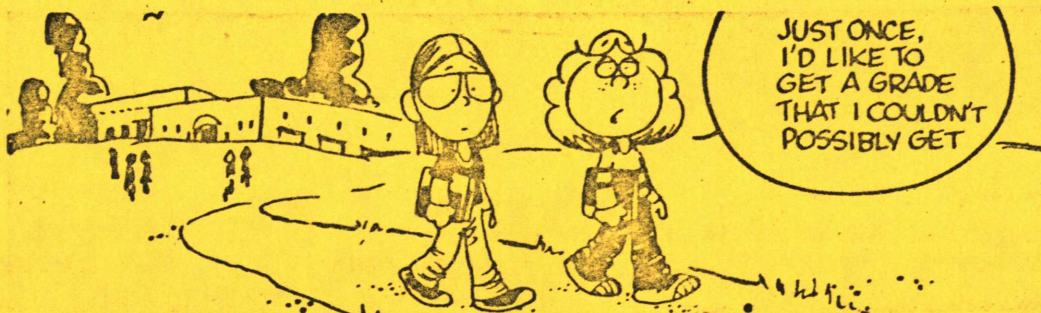

Commuters staying in residence halls will be required to abide by house rules. As mentioned, this is a trial and on it will depend if we allow it in the future. After all, exam week is a difficult one for everyone, and we don't want to add complications -- just help!

We welcome you! Just plan in advance and let us know! Remember, come by Bldg. 7 by this Thursday, May 23, to make plans with us!

FALL RESIDENTS!

Some of you have not yet come by with your room choice information. We are fast running out of space so be sure to take care of this NOW! (Remember the $75.00 deposit, too; rooms cannot be saved without this being in.)

FROM CAMPUS MINISTRY OFFICE

As was said before, "every bit of $ counts" -- so to each of you who supported one of the girls who lapped around Lanterman for an hour, more or less, THANK YOU!

NOON MASS:

We will be celebrating our last Noon Liturgy this Wednesday. We welcome all of you to come.

FROM THE CAMPUS MINISTRY OFFICE

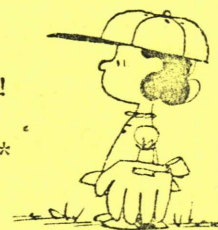

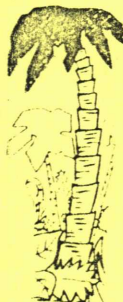

THOUGHT FOR THE SUMMER! I will proclaim your greatness, my God and King;
I will thank you forever and ever.
Everyday I will thank you;
I will praise you forever and ever;
I will always praise the Lord. (from Psalm 145)

Yes, during the days and weeks ahead, let us not forget to thank God for all he has done for us and those whom we love. May our daily lives be a constant reminder to others that we are Christ-followers and Christ-bearers.

A BIG HEARTY THANK YOU to all who supported our religious and fund-raising activities this year. Especially to Candace, April, Michele, Mary, Cynthia, Maria, Kenya and her talented friends and others who helped or gave their support. All you Deltas, too, who helped on Siena Day...well the list could on on...the important thing is that many shared the lot of "ministry" here on Campus...that is what counts!

RESIDENTS and OTHERS! If you do not want to take all your wearing apparel home, or have outgrown it, we have a box in Bldg. 7 where you can deposit usable clothing for the needy!

WALK-A-THON: Please do not forget to pay your walk-a-thon-girl. The money was due last Friday! Again, thank you. We do not have the final count, but if all the sponsors pay up, we will net approximately $400.00!

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION MAJORS COMPLETE 200-HOUR STUDENT TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Graduating E.C.E. majors have this to say:

Sylvia Ann Miller: When asked, "Do you still want to be a teacher of young children?" I recalled the sand thrown in my hair, the squabbles, runny noses, and the threat of, "I'm not going to be your friend." Remembering their faces, I thought . . . more than anything in the whole world.

Theresa Burghardt: Student teaching is a wonderful learning experience; you learn everything that gets you ready to teach in your own school. It's scary at first, but each day gets better; you have fun while you learn.

Cathy Gonzalez: My student-teaching days have meant a lot to me. They not only allowed me to apply what I've learned, but I really got a feel for life as a teacher. There were good and not-so-good days, but if a child ever smiles because of me, it makes it all worthwhile. It's an experience I will never forget, and I thank all of those people who gave me the chance to experience it.

Josephine Mora: Student teaching has been a very valuable and rewarding experience. It has assured me that a teaching career is what I truly want. I have grown attached to all of the children, and it will be hard leaving them.

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU! The Learning Resource Center extends a "warm" thank you to all faculty members who took time out (at the busiest time of the year) to respond to our Questionnaire. We're encouraged by your positive responses.

In response to your suggestions, we intend next year to extend closing time to 5:00 so we can be of service to the 4:30 classes. We'll also endeavor to set up a tutoring class in Math and will list the times it is to be held in the Doheny Happenings. A Beta $\frac{1}{2}$ " Player will receive high priority on the next budget.

As instructors request new programs from any department, we'll try to procure these for you. During the time of the grant, our programs were limited to specific areas; now all departments may order.

Again, we thank you.

FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT SERVICES

JUST A FEW LAST MINUTE REMINDERS:

1. If this is your last semester at Doheny-- either as a graduate who is continuing her education or as an undergraduate who is moving on-- please drop by Bldg. 7 before you go. It will only take a minute of your time. Graduates: just sign the paper on the door of Office 4. Undergraduates: pick up a form from the box near the door of Office 4 and fill it out. PLEASE! (A couple of you have already completed this, but for those of you who haven't, we'd appreciate it.)
2. If you are graduating this coming week, have you completed all the necessary duties? Be sure to check times for practices and the actual ceremonies. Packets are available if you got missed. Parking passes will be passed out at the practice. Make last minute checks this week of the Graduate Board in case of changes or notices you might need.

CONGRATULATIONS to Josie Mora who has been selected by her classmates as the Welcome Speaker for Commencement on June 2. Also, CONGRATULATIONS to Sylvia Raigosa, who will give the welcome for the Hooding Ceremony here at Doheny on June 1.

Remember the practices:

Thursday, May 30, at 10:45 a.m. for the Hooding (meet in Lecture Hall), and Friday, May 31, at 2:30 p.m. for the Graduation (meet in Room 403 at Chalon after the Alumnae Luncheon from 12:45-2:15).

3. We are on a search for returning students who would like to serve as BIG SISTERS for the incoming first years in the Fall. All we need now is your name (and an address and phone where we can contact you this summer). If you are interested -- and we need both commuters and residents -- please drop by Bldg. 7 to sign up. List is on the door of Office 4. (Several lists are up so check where you sign!) Thanks in advance for your help!

AND FINALLY...

Here we are at the end of another academic year, and it is time to say "thanks" and "good-bye":

THANKS to all those who have helped to make this year run smoothly (or at least somewhat less bumpy because of your help and presence): the ASB BOARD, the DELTAS, the many VOLUNTEERS for all the odd jobs you have done, the many LEADERS who have put together all kinds of events (especially the successful end-of-the-year LUAU!), and all those who have shared in the work and rewards of our Student Services area.

NOT GOOD-BYE, but just FAREWELL FOR AWHILE to the members of the Class of '85, others who will be leaving Doheny, and each of you as you depart for a well-deserved vacation. Enjoy it to the hilt! Rest, relax, miss us a little, and then return full of energy and enthusiasm in September. Until then...

REMINDER FROM ADVISEMENT OFFICE

All students who will be attending summer classes at colleges other than MSMC must file a TRANSFER OF CREDIT CLEARANCE in the Registrar's Office BEFORE taking the classes. Applications are available in the Registrar's Office.

FROM THE CAREER CENTER

Please take the time to fill out one of the questionnaires that appeared in last week's Doheny Happenings if you received a job by using the Job Board at the Career Center located in Building 7. Your response is deeply appreciated.

INTERNSHIPS: Internships can give you invaluable experience for your chosen career. Check the Job Board at the Career Center for Internships as well as jobs. Some Internships require as few as ten hours per week and give you terrific job training in return.

Have a wonderful summer!
